GRAND LODGE HALL,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 22, 1918.

The Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana, convened in its Eighty-second Semiannual Communication at 9:00 o'clock a. m., and was called to order by W. E. Deupree, Grand Master.

The Grand Secretary reported a quorum present.

The opening ode was sung and the Grand Chaplain requested all members to join in singing the first and last stanzas of "America," as follows:

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where our fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side,
Let freedom ring.

Our father's God, to Thee,
Author of Liberty,
To Thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might.
Great God, our King.

After which the Grand Chaplain offered prayer as follows:

Our Heavenly Father, we have come from all parts of this great State to sit for a little while in a delightful fellowship. Before we begin the work of the day we pause for a moment to ask that we may have Thy blessing in all the things that we shall have to do.

We thank Thee for the work that we have had to do and for the strength to work withal; for Thy sheltering care; for the flaming visions that have filled our souls; and for our opportunities of service.

We pray Thee to bless our great land. May Thy heavenly benediction rest upon our President. Be Thou with our sons wherever they are and bring them safe home again; but if they come not home again, help them to be men unto the end.

Bless our Order in all its deliberations during these days and may those of us who furnish leadership be enabled to furnish a worthy leadership, and help us to see that the needs of this hour furnish us with a supreme opportunity to interpret in terms of life the teachings of our Order.

Help us to keep alive and vigorous our faith in God, our faith in men and our faith in the triumph of right; and help us to face our tasks and accept our sacrifices, and bear our burdens as becometh men. We ask it all in the name of Him who gave Himself for us.

The Deputy Grand Master, by order of the Grand Master, declared the Grand Lodge open for the transaction of business.

The report of W. E. Deupree, Grand Master, with appendix, was submitted, as follows:

REPORT OF GRAND MASTER.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Brothers—Six months ago you honored me with the position of Grand Master of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana. This is the first opportunity I have had to thank the Odd Fellows of the State. I am very proud of the position, as any Odd Fellow should be, and while I haven't done the work this six months that a Grand Master should do, it is not wholly my fault. I promise you that the next six months I will give more time and attention to the work. The weather, together with the coal shortage and war conditions, have to a great extent hampered the work of the Order. I have answered every communication I have received. I have visited almost all the lodges that have asked me. On one or two occasions, on account of business conditions, I have been compelled to decline to attend, but I hope to be able in the latter part of my term to visit the lodges that desire my attention.

At this session of the Grand Lodge it is unfortunate that we are unable to visit the Home. The result is that the session ought not to keep the brothers here an unnecessary length of time and I hope the brothers, during the time we are in session, will give it their undivided attention and transact the business in good, prompt and fraternal manner.

The visits I have made have been, as I said, only a few, being: Henryville, No. 794; Indianapolis, No. 465; Laurel Rebekah, No. 614; McCarty, No. 233; Amico, No. 707; Rensselaer, No. 143; Tabor, No. 92; Hope, No. 83; Pittsboro, No. 342; Stilesville, No. 538; Woodward, No. 212; Shirley, No. 774; Kokomo,

No. 133; Spiceland, No. 266; Prudence Rebekah, No. 255; Columbia City, No. 176. At these various meetings there were present: Past Grand Master Bornwasser, Deputy Grand Master Winterowd, Grand Warden Ehrhardt, Grand Secretary Leedy, Past Grand Master Hollywood, Grand Patriarch Dunham, Past Grand Teckenbrock, Past Grand Patriarch Allison, D. D. G. P. Davis, Grand Instructor Pickerell, D. D. G. M. Bridges, Past Grands Ellis and Reed, of No. 76, and Past President Spekenhier, at Sybil Rebekah, No. 583, and Laurel Rebekah, No. 614. We had nice meetings and a very pleasant time. At some of them the lodges did work, at some of them there were social meetings. The meetings at Henryville, Woodward, Columbia City, Rensselaer and Spiceland were social, get-together meetings. I feel that if the lodges would have more social meetings, in the way of entertainments, not violating the food regulations with suppers, but for instance roll call and county meetings, they would find them a great deal of benefit.

I have had a great many queries, some on questions of law, some on questions of policy, referred to me for answer. A great many were frivolous and very few had been submitted to the D. D. G. M. as required by law. I have attempted to answer all of them to the best of my ability and I submit a list with this report.

District Meetings.

I visited district meetings in two or three counties. For instance, Columbia City, where they held an anniversary celebration, and Silcox and Pittsboro, where the lodges in each case held county meetings and did work, and Rensselaer, where the subordinate and Rebekah held joint sessions. At that time the weather was so cold there couldn't be very much done.

In fact, the old plan of district meetings at one place centrally located doesn't seem to be very successful at this time. The weaker lodges that need assistance and boosting don't get the benefit of it, but where they do as Hendricks County did, and as Johnson County later in the season did, going from one lodge to the other, having some lodge do the work on the class of candidates, I believe the brothers will find that in a great many localities it will help the weaker lodges and thereby help the Order, while with our manner of traffic, interurban and automobiles, almost any lodge can get its members to any other lodge in the county and get back at seasonable hours. Let me recommend to the districts, that as soon as the busy season is over you do more holding of county or district meetings. Some of the counties adopted the plan of going one meeting night in the month to one lodge in the county, and to another lodge one meeting night in the next month, and so on until they got around over the county. Sometimes the home lodge did the work, sometimes a visiting lodge went prepared to do the work. Other counties arranged for a drive for a certain month, got as many candidates at each locality as possible and gave the four degrees during the month at the various lodges in which the meetings were held, usually the lodge where the meeting was held doing the work. Either plan is a good one and I want to recommend it to the lodges for their consideration in the counties where it has not been adopted.

Delinquencies.

As usual, the Order in this State has to contend with a great many delinquencies. While it is true the membership must pay their dues to the Secretary on the last meeting night of the quarter, and while it is true it is the brother's duty to either go to the lodge room or hunt up the Secretary and pay his dues, and while it is also true that the Secretary, if he sees fit, can refuse to take the dues at any place except the lodge room or his regular place of receiving dues, in the lodges that are making gains and improving and have the fewest delinquencies the Secretaries go out and hunt up the brothers, going to their places of business or writing them, or by visiting and collecting the dues. I want to suggest to the lodges now, that if you have a Secretary that is keeping up the membership, collecting their dues either by postal or by personal solicitation, that you keep this Secretary. That, on the other hand, if you have a Secretary that will not go out and collect the dues, trying to keep up the membership, that you change Secretaries and get one that will. If you don't the first time get a Secretary that will keep up the delinquencies, or keep the delinquencies down to the minimum, that you keep changing until you get one that will.

With all the work that Past Grand Master Spears did last year, only a few counties made gains and a great many lodges that couldn't well afford the loss dropped from four to twenty, and some of the major lodges a great many more members; so, brothers, let me urge that at the end of this term you get your Secretaries of your various lodges to give you a list of the members who are delinquent even one quarter, and to get after them personally. Let me further suggest and urge that you get the list of your dropped members and if possible get them reinstated, for the fall term is always a bad term, and while the lodges can't do work through the warm weather, they can vote to reinstate and put a member in good standing. If one-half the work was done to hold the old members as is done to get new members, frequently not as good as the old members, our losses from this source would be a great deal less.

Rebekah Degree.

I have visited a number of Rebekah lodges and the district assemblies. Rebekah Odd Fellowship in Indiana has a wonderful work ahead of it. Rebekah Odd Fellowship is a labor of love and the noble band of women we have in this State are giving their time and attention for the good of the Order. Fraternity and sisterhood are the tenets of the Order. While the Order has not grown as it should, it is not due to the lack of enthusiasm, interest and work of the officers of the Rebekah Assembly, for Sister Spekenhier, as President of the Assembly, surely has given time and attention and work to the improvement of the Order, and I vouch for the hard work and attention that President Butner will give for the ensuing year, and it does seem that with the work and assistance and enthusiasm that the other Rebekah Assembly officers are giving, together with the number of Past Presidents that are giving their time and attention together with the number of other enthusiastic sisters, all of whom are too numerous to mention, Rebekah Odd Fellowship ought to be doubled in Indiana in the next twelve months instead of the indifference that is found in a great many of the lodges. I recommend to the Sisterhood that they start a propaganda in various localities for members. If every sister will pledge herself to her lodge to add one member in the next twelve months, think what a wonderful growth it would show, and while there are a great many sisters that do not attend very regularly, if the regular attendant sisters who want to see their lodge grow would pick out some lady of their acquaintance that they know would make a good Rebekah, make it a point to get one new member, you would be surprised in one year from now at the membership. I doubt whether the Rebekahs receive as much support from the subordinate lodge members as they should. It gives to their lodge, even if they pay no rent for the room, a great deal more than money can ever pay. Let me urge you, brothers, that you who do not belong to the Rebekah Lodge go home and put in your petition and become a member.

Encampment.

I have been unable to visit Encampment meetings owing to various conditions. Grand Patriarch Dunham has been looking after his Encampments. I have heard from him in various localities. I don't know whether the Encampments are making any gains, but I want to recommend to the brothers that you get busy and help your Encampments. The best working subordinate lodge members are members of Encampments. In fact, you go into a lodge room where there is an Encampment on ordinary meeting night and two-thirds of the membership are Encampment members. And let me urge of you brothers that are not members of the Encampment, that you take the work and take it as soon as you can get it. If there is no Encampment at your home lodge, put in your petition to the nearest Encampment and get the benefit of it.

Patriarchs Militant.

Another branch of our Order that I want to recommend highly to the membership is the Patriarchs Militant. In this day and age when we have war in the east, when we feel the necessity of military training, even we older members ought to be, to some extent, trained in military tactics, and there is no better place to receive that training than in the Patriarchs Militant Degree. When it is received, you have been associated with a high class of gentlemen, with good, clean Odd Fellows, and you have received work, not only in the receiving of the degree but in the training as well, that will improve your membership as Odd Fellows.

The Home.

Every Odd Fellow ought to be proud of our Home. It is a matter of pride to every one who has visited it. See the old brothers and sisters and children who would today be inmates of county asylums and orphans' homes if it were not for Odd Fellowship and the good work that has been done by them in establishing the Home. I might say, in passing, that a great part of the good we are doing with the Home, the Rebekahs of Indiana are entitled to more credit than the brothers of the Order. I visited the Home, in company with Brother Leedy, when the Board was in session, and it surely does your heart good to see those bright little children and happy faces as they play around the Home. I want to recommend to the Brotherhood, that if any of you have any occasion to take a child into your home, you can't do better than go to the I. O. F. Home of Indiana and get the child, for you know that you are getting a child of good parentage, whose father was a good enough man to be an Odd Fellow. I want to further suggest to the brothers that as we are unable to have excursions, that the fifteenth day of August is the day of the annual picnic at the Home, and let me suggest to you that with our mode of travel from most any section of the State you can start that day and reach the Home in time for dinner, and that you make preparation and come with dinner baskets and that way have a big annual picnic at the Home on August 15th. Don't come expecting to be fed at the Home. I will suggest to the Superintendent that no preparations be made there to feed the visitors, but that if you don't go taking a supply that the residents will be fed as usual, but don't do that. Go prepared to give the residents a treat and spread your dinners together out under the trees and see what a good, happy time you can have and spend a pleasant day with the old brothers and sisters and the children for whom we are caring; and don't go alone, but take your families whether they are members of the Order or not.

At the last session of the Grand Lodge, Past Grand Master Spears started a new committee known as "Special Home Committee," for the purpose of reporting the conditions at the Home. I have kept up this committee and appointed Brothers Past Grand Master Wiley, Past Grand Zoercher and Past Grand Jay, instructing them to make special trips to the Home, investigating conditions, making a report which will be submitted to the Grand Lodge, and the expenses of their trips would be paid by the Grand Lodge, for all of which I ask your approval.

Deaths.

The grim reaper has visited our membership since we last met, taking our Grand Trustee, Past Grand Master M. A. Chipman, who had served the Order well for many, many years, Brother Chipman having given his time and attention to the business of the Order when he could ill afford the time. Brother Chipman has served in various positions of honor and trust and has never been found wanting. Also Sister Jennie Leedy, the wife of our honored Grand Secretary, who for a number of years had been an enthusiastic member of the Rebekah lodge and who gave to our good Brother Leedy strong assistance in the doing of the good work he has heretofore done. Every member of the Order was grieved when they heard of his loss and they join with me in extending condolences to him and his family.

Dispensations.

I have granted dispensations to a few lodges to confer all the degrees in one night on soldier candidates, namely: Markle Lodge, No. 362; Glenn Lodge, No. 149; Canal Lodge, No. 409, and while lodges should not do this as a general thing, these respective members leaving for the service, I felt it was proper and right, and I ask your approval.

Expelled Members.

I granted Sharon Lodge, No. 487, a dispensation to reinstate Mr. Albert Benefiel, who had been expelled; Waverly Lodge, No. 434, to reinstate W. H. Sutton; Russiaville Lodge, No. 105, to reinstate Mr. J. O. Hendricks; Fairmount Lodge, No. 381, to reinstate W. L. Wheeler; Wadesville Lodge, No. 781, to reinstate Mr. Z. P. Watson; also Perry Lodge, No. 880, a dispensation to relieve Brothers Harmon Hall and A. J. Brown of a suspension.

Consolidations.

I granted authority for the following lodges to consolidate: Cardonia Lodge, No. 589, with Coal City Lodge, No. 522, of Brazil, under the name and number of the latter lodge; Saline City Lodge, No. 835, to consolidate with Cory Lodge, No. 449; Liberty Lodge, No. 783, to consolidate with Scottsburg Lodge, No. 555; Logan Lodge, No. 40; Eel River Lodge, No. 417, and Gotthardt Lodge, No. 574, of Logansport. Almeta Rebekah Lodge, No. 649, to consolidate with Diana Lodge, No. 256, of Evansville, and Brimfield Rebekah Lodge, No. 692, to consolidate with Star Rebekah Lodge, No. 92, at Albion.

Calls for Aid.

I have refused the request of Fort Red Lodge, No. 504, to solicit aid from the membership, it appearing they have a new second-story hall with a small indebtedness and another small building without any indebtedness. I also refused St. Joe Lodge, No. 671, consent to solicit aid. The petitions in these two particular cases did not state facts of property, indebtedness and membership in such a manner as the membership could tell whether they needed aid or only needed to get busy and work, and at this time when the membership is being called on for assistance in other lines to support and keep our Order up, I don't feel that the membership should be called on for assistance unless the lodge can show by good substantial facts that it is absolutely needed and that they are unable to take care of themselves. That was not the case with these two lodges.

Resuscitations.

I have resuscitated Southport Rebekah Lodge, No. 549, and Sybil Rebekah Lodge, No. 583, and instituted a new Rebekah Lodge at Hope, known as Hope Rebekah Lodge, No. 804.

Charters Surrendered.

During last year the charter of Myrtle Lodge, No. 567, of Royal Center, was surrendered and taken up and the property of the lodge turned over to the Grand Lodge, which was approved at the last session, and there were fifty dollars in money turned over to the Grand Lodge and Myrtle Lodge owed Mrs. S. H. Grant, of Royal Center, benefits in the sum of forty dollars, which upon my recommendation the Grand Secretary has paid, and we ask your approval. Charters of the following lodges have been surrendered and the property is now in the hands of the Grand Lodge: Berne Lodge, No. 838, Berne, Adams County; Carmel Lodge, No. 401, Carmel, Hamilton County.

REBEKAH LODGES.

Wilkinson Lodge, No. 472, Wilkinson; Wheatfield Lodge, No. 410, Wheatfield; Nashville, No. 579, at Nashville; Odon, No. 319, at Odon; Ida, No. 495, at Idaville; Venus, No. 515, at Cayuga; Columbia, No. 399, Monroeville; Evergreen, No. 484, at Leesburg; Berne, No. 720, at Berne, and Gas Center, No. 374 at Summitville.

Talisman.

It is with regret I have to announce to you the probable suspension of the Talisman, not through lack of support so much as a failure on the part of the management to secure assistance in making collections and obtaining new subscribers. It is a real calamity to Odd Fellowship in Indiana to lose the Talisman. It is a very valuable paper to the Order and I hope this Grand Lodge will be able to devise some means by which it might be continued. The loss of the Talisman, as well as Brother Hollywood in this work, will be felt by the Order in this State for many years.

Grand Trustee.

I have noted above that Past Grand Master Chipman, who had served for many years as Grand Trustee, departed this life and left a vacancy in the body of Trustees. I appointed P. G. Philip Zoercher to the position in his stead. I submit the appointment to the Grand Lodge for approval or disapproval.

Supervisors.

At the November session of 1916 the Grand Lodge authorized the Grand Master to appoint two supervisors for the purpose of assisting the Grand Master in working for the good of the Order and to assist the weaker lodges. At that time the Grand Master appointed Past Grand Master Bornwasser and P. G. John Teckenbrock and their services were such last year that they were reappointed at the beginning of my term. The report of their doings for the last six months is attached to and made a part of this report. I want to say to the brothers, that I have kept in pretty close touch with them and I think it is the best thing that I have seen for the keeping of the weaker lodges going and alive. Of course the weather was bad and the coal shortage interfered to a great extent, but I feel that their report will show nice gains in their localities. I hope the Grand Lodge will see fit to give the Grand Master authority to keep them or someone else, because I firmly believe they are doing more good for the Order in this State than the Grand Master can do in the limited time he can give to the work.

War Relief.

At the last session of the Grand Lodge a message was ordered sent to the President of the United States, pledging the loyalty of the eighty-five thousand Odd Fellows in Indiana to the support of the Government in its war for democracy against autocracy, and the following reply was received: "My dear Mr. Deupree—The President is heartened and cheered by the reassuring message which you and Mr. Leedy addressed to him in the name of the Grand Lodge of Indiana, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and he asks me to thank you and those concerned very cordially. Sincerely yours, J. P. Tumulty, Secretary to the President."

At the May session, 1917, of the Grand Lodge, Indiana Odd Fellowship recognized the terrible war and the conditions that would arise from it and took an advanced step and adopted as new legislation a bill for war relief and remission of dues of the brothers in the service. At the time it was conceded by the best legal minds of the Grand Lodge that it was unconstitutional, but the Sovereign Grand Lodge had its session in September and passed a law that not only approved the legislation of Indiana Grand Lodge but went further with reference to the payment of dues and benefits and to the granting of honors to brothers in the service. At its session in November the Grand Lodge of Indiana passed a new law under which the War Relief Fund of this State has been working. It provided for the Finance Board to have charge of the fund and pay the benefits to the brothers when sick and disabled. They met and organized and after their organization they appointed a sub-committee composed of the Grand Master, Grand Secretary and Past Grand Representative

Shirts to have charge of and disburse the fund. How well they have done this you can see by their report. A great number of the lodges have had a great deal of trouble in construing this new law and a great many queries have come to the Grand Master concerning it. We have done our best and await your approval, disapproval or suggestions that have or may arise with reference thereto. But, my brothers, it seems to me from the study I have given it, that Odd Fellowship in Indiana has taken an advanced step and has performed a patriotic duty to its members in what it has done. These brothers that are giving their all for the support of the Government and their Order are entitled to the best we can give them.

Through the Grand Secretary's office, I received a request from the League to Enforce Peace that a committee be appointed from the Grand Lodge to represent the Grand Lodge of Indiana at a meeting of the League at Philadelphia, Pa., May 16th and 17th, and I appointed Past Grand Sire Cockrum and Grand Secretary Leedy, whose report will be received during the session.

Disputes.

When I came in as Grand Master, a dispute over jurisdictional lines had arisen between Fargo Lodge No. 886 and English Lodge, No. 596. I corresponded a great deal with each lodge over the matter and finally wrote them suggesting that they each appoint a committee and settle the matter, which they agreed to do. I afterwards received a communication from Fargo Lodge that the committee from English had failed to meet with them, and upon writing English Lodge about it they informed me they did not get the word in time. I then fixed May 8th for them to meet and wrote each lodge that if they failed to attend the meeting and settle the matter that I would appoint someone and send to make the settlement. I received a communication from Fargo Lodge that English Lodge failed to attend and I appointed P. G. M. Arbuckle to visit that locality and settle the matter, and he will report his doings, for which actions of the Grand Master I ask your approval and also the payment of his expenses.

Conclusion.

In conclusion, my brothers, I desire again to thank the brothers of Indiana for the honor bestowed upon me in placing me in the highest position of the Grand Lodge of Indiana, and in passing, I should say that I am very grateful to Grand Secretary Leedy, Past Grand Master Hollywood and Past Grand Master Bornwasser and many others for the assistance given me in what work I have done. If we make any gains in this term, the honor and credit is due to the brothers themselves.

I hope and trust that the next six months I will be able to make up to the Order my delinquency of the past six months.

I am,

Fraternally,

Grand Master.

A.—If this has been a continuous sickness he should be paid during the time; if not should begin anew.

Statement.—Not knowing that officers of a lodge were now elected in the old way, we did not nominate on regular nomination night. On the last meeting night in November, we proceeded to both nominate and elect.

14. Q.—Will this election stand as legal?

A.—Yes; see Sec. 26, page 48, General Laws 1917.

Statement.—The Constitution and By-laws for District Rebekah Assembly of Indiana reads: "Guardians will close the doors, Warden and Conductors will prove those present according to our laws and usages," which will require the members to give the semi-annual password.

15. Q.—Is that correct?

A.—No; must not take up any password at meetings of District Assemblies.

16. Q.—If no passwords are taken up, how are we to ascertain who are members?

A.—There is no way to ascertain. If a person, not a member, sees fit to attend, there is nothing to prevent and as no secret work is given, they do not learn any of the workings of our Order.

17. Q.—Our program calls for an exemplification of the "Secret Work." Can we do this?

A.—Not at a session of your District Assembly. 21. Q.—What should we do?

A.—Sec. 180, page 119, General Laws, is very plain as to aid to widows and orphans. I would suggest you do the best you can with this widow.

22. Q.—When will they draw benefits?

A.—At the end of six months from initiation.

23. Q.—Can a lodge reduce its fees, in case of a contest for membership, or just merely to offer it as an inducement to increase membership?

A.—If December 31st was the last meeting night of the term, yes. If the last meeting night was previous to December 31st, the answer would be no.

36. Q.—Can a lodge, by resolution, create a "House Committee," with authority to employ a host for the lodge room?

A.—Yes.

A.—No; except from a contingent fund.

Statement.—A brother paid dues to September 30, 1917; on the last meeting in September, 1917, did not pay; but on December 26, 1917, which was the last meeting in December, 1917, he paid for two quarters; took sick February 13, 1918.

A.—Yes. Section 117, page 89, General Laws 1918.

Statement.—A brother has been held in quarantine with a smallpox patient.

39. Q.—Is he entitled to benefits?

A.—Not unless he was sick.

Statement.—A sister has been dropped from membership for eight or nine years, makes application for and is reinstated.

A.—No, but is under a penalty for 13 weeks because of failure to pay dues at proper time.

48. Q.—Brother fails to pay dues in March, June, September and December, 1917; when should he be dropped?

A.—If he has been notified as provided in Sec. 111, page 87, General Laws 1918, then he should be dropped on the fourth regular meeting night, from the fourth or final notice. See Sec. 112, page 87, General Laws 1918.

Report of Supervisor Geo. P. Bornwasser.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Brothers—I submit the following report of my work as Supervisor of Subordinate Lodges for five months from November 23, 1917, to May 1, 1918. I submitted a report at the November session showing 170 lodges visited, with initiations and reinstatements of about 400 in those lodges. From November 23d to May 1st I visited 47 lodges; several of these lodges I visited at different times and spent from three days to a week with a number of them.

Some of these lodges were dormant, having had no work for some time, while a few were practically dead and on the point of surrendering their charters, but are now in good, healthy condition. In fact, the attendance of most of our lodges is not what it should be. But notwithstanding the condition of things—Liberty Loan, Red Cross, Food Conservation and other patriotic meetings—I believe much good has been accomplished. To save space I only give number of lodges visited and work they have done :

Brothers, while hundreds of our members are rendering service to their country, have given up their positions and tendered their life's blood for a common cause, for the principles of Odd Fellowship and humanity we also have a service to perform, both to our country and our noble Order. And we can perform this service by attending our lodge meetings, by increasing our membership, by assisting our organization in its noble work—without the loss of position or our life's blood—and be in a position, when our boys come marching home, to apply the principles of Odd Fellowship, to greet them with our ranks full and not depleted, that they may feel and know that in our humble way we too have been rendering service.

Yours in F., L. and T.,

G. P. BORNWASSER.

George P. Bornwasser, P. G. Rep., offered the following resolution, which was considered and adopted:

Resolved, That the report of the Grand Master be distributed as follows:

To Committee on the State of the Order—Introductory remarks and conclusion, district meetings, delinquencies, Encampments, Patriarchs Militant, Talisman, Grand Trustee, supervisors and war relief.

To Committee on Petitions and Applications—Consolidations, charters taken up, appeals for aid and expelled members.

To Committee on Rebekah Degree—All matters regarding this degree.

To Committee on Grievances and Appeals—The differences between Fargo and English lodges.

To Memorial Committee—Deaths of Brother Chipman, P. G. Rep., and Sister Leedy.

To the Committee on Judiciary—Decisions and appendix.

To Special Home Committee—Reference to Home.

The report of H. A. Winterrowd, Deputy Grand Master, was submitted, and, on motion, referred to the Judiciary Committee, as follows:

REPORT OF DEPUTY GRAND MASTER.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

As Deputy Grand Master I submit for your approval my report for the term of six months from November 21, 1917, to May 22, 1918. While the work connected with the office of Deputy Grand Master is not heavy I have found it involves a good deal of correspondence. I am sure that this could be eliminated if the lodges would furnish their by-laws committees (when appointed) a copy of the General Laws of the latest edition.

I have approved nine sets of by-laws of subordinate lodges, three sets of by-laws of Rebekah lodges, forty-eight sets of amendments of subordinate by-laws, nine sets of amendments of Rebekah by-laws. I have disapproved twelve sets of amendments of subordinate by-laws and two sets of amendments of Rebekah by-laws. Some of these have since been corrected and approved.

Deaths.

Brother and Rev. Marion Crosley, D. D., a past Grand Chaplain of this Grand Lodge, a prominent member and well-known citizen, died November 27th last, on a train between Louisville, Ky., and Indianapolis, from hardening of the arteries.

John W. Cooper, Past Grand Patriarch and Past Grand Representative of the Grand Encampment of Indiana, passed away at his home in Kokomo, December 31st last, at the age of 80 years. He was a highly distinguished and valuable member of our Order.

Marcellus A. Chipman, Past Grand Master and Past Grand Representative, died at his home at Anderson, Indiana, April 16, 1918. He had been an active member of the Order practically all his life. He was Grand Master in 1894-5 and was Grand Trustee from about 1896 to the time of his death. The death of Brother Chipman is a severe loss to the Order.

Fires.

The lodge building of Carthage Lodge, No. 255, at Carthage, Rush County, was destroyed by fire on January 10th. The rituals of both subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, the paraphernalia and regalia are all that was saved. The insurance was for $17,000.00.

The lodge building of St. Joe Lodge, No. 671, at St. Joe Station, Dekalb County, together with all books, charter, records, paraphernalia, regalia, etc., was destroyed by fire on March 5, 1917. It was a great blow to the lodge, as was the fire at Carthage. I have not learned of the amount of insurance carried by the lodge.

War Relief Fund.

The Finance Board of the Grand Lodge, consisting of the Grand Master, Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer and the three Grand Trustees, met at this office, December 5th, with all present except Brother Chipman, Grand Trustee. On motion, Brother W. E. Deupree, Grand Master, was made chairman of the board, W. H. Leedy, Grand Secretary, secretary of the board, and W. A. Morris, Grand Treasurer, treasurer of the board.

All the expenses to the committee, including clerical assistance, if needed, were ordered to be paid from the Grand Lodge treasury, no part of it to be taken from the War Relief Fund. This also included all printing and supplies.

Brother George Shirts, Grand Trustee; W. H. Leedy, Grand Secretary, and W. E. Deupree, Grand Master, were made to constitute a sub-committee to dispose of all matters referred to them for relief of members by sickness or death, where immediate action was deemed necessary, and given authority to draw warrants on the finance board therefor.

A resolution was adopted that "It is the judgment of the sub-committee that all soldier members of the Order, whether delinquent or not, who were not dropped from membership prior to entering the service of the United States, are entitled to participate in the distribution of the War Relief Fund." It was also held by the committee that "Persons employed by the Y. M. C. A. in war service, unless regularly enlisted or conscripted, are not entitled to participate in the War Relief afforded by this fund."

I submit as supplementary to this report, a complete statement of the receipts and expenditures on account of this fund. That report in detail shows that the following lodges did not comply with the payment of the war assessment, namely, Border Lodge, No. 224; Goldsmith Lodge, No. 324; Comet Lodge, No. 615; Rolling Prairie Lodge, No. 679, and Saline City Lodge, No. 835. Their failure or refusal to pay this assessment is direct contempt of the action of the Grand Lodge in making the assessment, and is no less an offense against the Grand Lodge than the nonpayment of Grand Lodge dues or other order. Of course, no relief will probably be extended members of such lodges while delinquent, but that is not sufficient punishment. The lodges themselves should be required to contribute to the relief of all soldier members. I doubt if there ever has been a call for funds made by the Grand Lodge to subordinates that was so cheerfully and enthusiastically responded to as in this instance. Our lodges were not only quick to respond, but no doubt would have given more quite as cheerfully had it been required.

No assessment has been made by the committee other than the one made by the Grand Lodge, and it is my judgment that one will not be required for some time to come. However, as our members enter active warfare, the call for benefits to those who become sick, disabled, or are destroyed, will be much greater. We all pray that our losses will be very light, and that the war will soon come to an honorable ending; but whether so or not, we must not hesitate to do anything that is necessary for their comfort, relief and protection. God bless our soldier boys!

In this connection, I may add that the Sovereign Grand Lodge supplied us with cards for the names and records of all soldier members. I distributed these among the lodges of the State and have received in return at this time about 1,200 of these cards showing that number of brothers in the war service. I am sure that there are hundreds, probably 500, of such brothers, who have not been reported on these cards, but which will no doubt be received later. A duplicate of the cards was made and forwarded to the Sovereign Grand Lodge where they are also kept on file.

I also deem it advisable to report that I distributed to our lodges several circulars having reference to the conservation of food, and other patriotic circulars, which were issued by the authority and approval of the Grand Sire, by the Special Food Commissioner appointed by him, E. W. Bradford of Washington.

Conclusion.

The closing months of the year 1917 were the most severe, probably, that we have ever experienced. For thirty-one days, it is said, the temperature registered below zero, and the severe weather made it impossible for the members to attend lodges as was their custom. Following this severe weather, conditions of State and country, due to war, took possession of us and made it practically impossible to have lodge meetings for thirty to sixty days, so that the most satisfactory part of the terms ending and beginning January 1 were lost to us.

Notwithstanding these facts, and while we show a loss for the term, we show a gain for the year which indicates that Odd Fellowship is progressing as well as could be expected under the above conditions. I do not think that we need to be alarmed. We made a modest gain for the year just closed, and I am sure we will not permit ourselves to grow less effective during the present year.

Since the weather has become moderate, I have had advices of considerable work being done throughout the State, but I very much fear that for the second time in our history as an Order, our present term may result in loss. It is true that a large number of our young men have been called into the U. S. service, but I am sure, while it adds somewhat to our efforts, there is a sufficient number of members left to carry on the work of the Order successfully and to our advantage. The responsibility is greater upon us who remain at home, and we should appreciate this fact and use every effort to maintain our lodge work and our homes, as well as being sincerely, honestly and ever patriotic.

Faternally submitted,

Divided as follows:

Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company.....	$325,000 00
Second mortgage bonds.....	72,000 00
Loans from lodges and individuals.....	17,950 00

March .....	4,804 95
April .....	4,597 53
Total .....	$34,313 95

As will be noted from the foregoing detailed report of receipts and expenditures, the conditions brought about as a result of the war have added no little to the expense of maintaining the building and have been the cause of considerable reduction in the amount received from tenancy. We have considered these conditions with much earnestness and anxiety. The cost of labor in all lines of business has greatly increased as well as the cost of coal, machinery and other materials required, so that the above report, for the first time, does not show a net gain in payment on indebtedness.

Under our present contract we are obligated to pay $20,000 annually on the amount due the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company. In view of the foregoing facts it is well for us, as business men, to consider this situation fairly, and as business men to take such steps for our protection in the future and for the ultimate payment of these obligations at as early a date as possible. It is apparent from the situation disclosed that should the war conditions continue long, carrying with them increased prices of all things and decreased rentals, that the time would soon come when we should have to borrow money with which to pay interest, and this good financiers would avoid whenever possible. If the indebtedness on the property can be more rapidly paid off so as to decrease the annual interest charge the building would readily take care of itself under almost any conceivable situation, but it seems to us that we should make an effort to reduce this principal debt, and the question is, what is the better way to do that? In our judgment the better way is to provide an assessment of 50 cents per capita per annum for five years, which would amount to only $2.50 for each member through the period of years, and at the same time would enable us to pay off the principal of this debt at least $40,000 per year—and in this way the revenue would soon be in such shape that dues to the Grand Lodge and taxes for the Home would be largely reduced. We have already paid in interest alone in the ten years since the building was erected, approximately $300,000; and it is perfectly apparent that we should get rid of this interest charge at a more rapid rate than we have thus far been able to do. The compensation to the members for the making of such payments now would consist in being relieved from payments in the future from much greater obligations in the way of Grand Lodge dues and Home tax.

The death of Brother M. A. Chipman, who has served as one of our trustees for so many years, was a severe shock to us as his attention to the duties imposed upon him were always faithfully and cheerfully given. Brother Philip Zoercher, Past Grand, was appointed by the Grand Master to succeed Brother Chipman.

The report of the Building Committee was submitted, as follows:

REPORT OF BUILDING COMMITTEE.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

BROTHERS—Your Building Committee submits the following report for the term beginning November 1st, last:

The only business that was referred to the committee was the proposed action of North Star Lodge, No. 380, of Albion, Noble County, in proposing to purchase a property for lodge purposes. It was referred to the Chairman of the Committee and final action of the committee thereon was deferred until the special session of the committee to be held May 22d.

It is evident that owing to the war and the high prices of materials of all kinds, our lodges are wisely refraining from investments in buildings at this time.

Your committee therefore had no business before it except the one above cited.

George Shirts, P. G. Rep., from the Special Committee on the Home, made the following report, which was considered and adopted, as follows:

Report of Special Home Committee.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

At the last session of the Grand Lodge the Grand Master recommended legislation to the effect that no resolution, by-law or order of the directors of the Home should be operative unless approved by the Grand Lodge. This recommendation was referred to the Special Home Committee, which committee, not being agreed as to the validity of the proposed legislation, so reported, and recommended that a special committee be appointed, to report thereon at the present session of the Grand Lodge.

Thereupon the Grand Master appointed the undersigned as such special committee (November Session, 1917, pp. 11669-70, and p. 11436).

Your special committee having carefully examined the question submitted, begs leave to report as follows:

The Home is a voluntary association, organized under a special act of the Indiana Legislature, which act was approved February 23, 1909. (See Burns Annotated Statutes 1914, Sec. 5061h et seq.)

The members comprising the association are the Grand Lodge, the Grand Encampment and the Rebekah Assembly. The statute above mentioned provides that the articles of association shall specify, among other things, the objects of the association and the proposed plan of doing business, and the manner of election or appointment of directors, and the length of time they shall serve. A copy of the articles of association will be found in the printed proceedings of the Grand Lodge, May, 1909, at page 6447.

In Article 2 of the Articles of Association, it is provided that the plan of doing business shall be by and through its board of three directors, and by Article 10, it is provided that the board of directors shall have full authority, and it is made their duty to adopt by-laws, rules and regulations for the maintenance of the Home and its guests, not inconsistent with the Articles of Association or laws of the State.

Under these circumstances and conditions, it seems clear that the association has delegated to its directors power to make and enforce any by-law which the association, as a corporation, could itself make and enforce, were it acting directly in the matter.

At the May session of the Grand Lodge, in 1912, page 8276, a special committee, appointed by the Grand Lodge, made a report upon practically the same question we are here considering, to the effect that the directors of the Home had the sole power to make by-laws, and that the Grand Lodge could not interfere. That conclusion was based upon the fact that the Articles of Association clothe the board of directors with that power, and that the Grand Lodge, as one of the three members of the association, could not, by resolution, control the matter.

We agree to the conclusions reached by that committee so far as it related to the validity of the proposed legislation then under consideration; but we do not agree to the proposition that the members of the Home Association, or a majority thereof, have no power of control. It certainly cannot be that a board of directors of a corporation can become permanently supreme over the property and affairs of the corporation itself, and that the members of such corporation are, and must remain mere figureheads.

There is no such reproach in the law as this. Clearly there is a remedy, and that is to amend the Articles of Incorporation of the Home in such way as to make the power of the directors subservient to the will of the members of the corporation. It is lawful to make such amendments both by the general law, author izing the incorporation of voluntary associations, and that right has also been declared by our courts of appeal. (See Renn. v. United States Cement Company, 36 Ind. App. 149, and Sec. 31 of Voluntary Association Act, being Burns Annotated Statutes 1914 Sec. 4322.)

The section of the statute just cited provides that such association "may prescribe and adopt rules and regulations for its officers and members", and the act under which the Home was incorporated is expressly declared to be supplemental to other laws on the subject.

The proper and necessary steps to accomplish the change in the Articles of Incorporation are to direct the Grand Lodge Trustees to call or join in a call for a meeting of the members of the Home Association, and at such meeting such members can adopt such amendment to the Articles of Incorporation as they may deem proper, and cause the same to be incorporated in the articles by signing, acknowledging and filing the same, as in case of the original articles.

With respect to the existing rules of the Home, while we have not examined them with the care which would be required in case of their revision, yet a casual reading of them shows that several of the rules, at least, should be repealed or modified, and we direct the attention of the Grand Lodge specially and notably to Rules 3a, 4, 9, 10, 11, 13b and 43.

We suggest that said Rule 13b in particular is without any validity, because, purporting to raise a tax upon lodges, it was not submitted to the Legislative Committee of the Grand Lodge. It was no more than the approval of the Grand Lodge of a rule of the Home, but this is not the equivalent of legislation. (See November Proceedings, 1917, page 11510.)

We therefore recommend the following:

(1) That the legislation proposed by the Grand Master as above set forth be not adopted.

(2) That the Grand Lodge Trustees be, and they are hereby authorized and directed to call, or join in a call, for a meeting of the members of the Home Corporation, at which meeting the Articles of Association of said Home Corporation shall be amended, and such amendment be signed and acknowledged by such trustees and filed as required by law, and that Article 10 of the Articles of Incorporation of the Odd Fellows' Home Association of the State of Indiana be amended to read as follows:

"The board of directors shall have full authority, and it is made their duty, to adopt by-laws providing for the maintenance of the Home, and also to adopt rules and regulations to govern and regulate the business of their meetings, and for the admission and discharge of guests and for the performance of the business and the proper conduct and management of the Home and guests, which by-laws shall not be inconsistent with these Articles of Association, or the laws of the State of Indiana.

"Provided, however, That no by-law, rule or regulation adopted by the board of directors shall be binding or operative until the same shall have been approved by the Trustees of two or more of the grand bodies composing said Home Association."

(3) That there should be a general revision of the by-laws, rules and regulations for the government of the Home and the admission and discharge of guests, and submitted to the Trustees of the grand bodies composing the Home Association for approval, which said board of directors shall do within sixty days from this date.

The semiannual report of the Home Directors was submitted as follows, and referred to the Special Home Committee:

SEMI-ANNUAL REPORT OF HOME DIRECTORS.

SUPERINTENDENT'S SEMI-ANNUAL REPORT.

To the Board of Directors of the Odd Fellows Home:

Conforming to the usual custom, I present herewith for your consideration my report of the Home for the semi-annual period ending April 1, 1918. The first half of the present fiscal year has witnessed a still further increase in enrollment, and in February of this year we reported a total of 189 enrolled, the highest ever recorded at any one time. The movement of population for the six months' period is concisely set out in the following:

Enrolled in the Home October 1, 1917.....	183
Admissions—
Adults: men, 12; women, 7; total.....	19
Children: Boys, 4; girls, 7; total.....	11
Total admissions .....	30
Total number in the Home during the half year.....	213

Decrease:

By death—Adults .....	8
By dismissal—Adults .....	7
Children returned to their lodge.....	6
Children returned to their parents.....	4
Children placed in private homes.....	2
Total decrease .....	27

Enrolled in the Home April 1, 1918:

Men .....	86
Women .....	54
Boys .....	26
Girls .....	20
Total .....	186

Death has invaded our Home eight times in the six months covered by this report and removed from our midst the following brothers and sisters:

Willett P. Tapp, October 26, 1917.
 Addie L. Stewart, October 29, 1917.
 Love H. Jamison, November 19, 1917.
 Louisa Cochran, December 23, 1917.
 Joseph R. Hicks, January 24, 1918.
 Sarah C. Anderson, February 10, 1918.
 Mary Rickel, March 1, 1918.
 John Kizer, March 15, 1918.

It is not at all surprising that so much sickness and suffering should prevail among our residents, when we consider the number of aged ones under our care and their many afflictions. To give you a better idea of the condition of our family, I might mention that no less than twenty are entirely helpless and require constant attention, fourteen occupy wheel chairs at all times when out of their beds, ten walk only by the aid of crutches, seven are totally blind and a number of others are practically so.

There has been some little sickness among the children—one case of typhoid fever and one of pneumonia, both of which recovered nicely. The so-called Liberty measles has interfered somewhat with their school attendance, and now the mumps is causing considerable annoyance.

Aside from the irregularities due to illness, as above mentioned, and the temporary closing of the schools because of a coal shortage, our children have been regular in their attendance upon the public schools of the city, and as a general thing have made very satisfactory grades. Only six of our family of children were under school age.

The farm and garden work have progressed very satisfactorily this spring, all our early plantings and some of the second having been made. There is promise of considerable fruit in our orchard again this year, although the cherry crop will be light.

Our dairy herd of sixteen cows is producing an abundance of milk for our tables just now, though in the winter season the supply is not so plentiful at all times as we could use. We fattened and butchered 65 head of hogs the past winter, giving us an excellent supply of fresh and cured meat.

We have endeavored so far as at all practicable to carry out the requests of the Federal Food Administration in the conservation of food, particularly wheat flour, sugar and meat. We observe three meatless days each week, two wheatless days and a wheatless meal each day, and restrict the use of sugar. Into this program of conservation for "Uncle Sam" and his soldier boys our family have entered quite cheerfully and loyally, and it is seldom that we hear any complaint. Occasionally we hear of some one complaining of the "victory bread," etc., but I am sure they do not mean to be disloyal, though similar remarks by the rest of us would be so construed.

The ordinary repairs to the buildings have been attended to as their need became apparent, but some interior decoration and other painting have been deferred, owing to the extreme cost of everything and the depleted condition of the Home's finances. We have constantly endeavored to keep the buildings and their surroundings clean and sanitary, and as attractive as possible.

We have labored earnestly and conscientiously in our efforts to care for the aged and afflicted ones and the children entrusted to our care; with what measure of success we shall leave you to judge. In so doing we have found pleasure and happiness, though mingled with cares and disappointments, and trust that we have been of real service to you and to all for whom our efforts have been expended.

Fraternally submitted in F., L. and T.,

CHAS. E. LOCKHART.

REPORT OF SECRETARY.

To the Rebekah Assembly and Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Dear Sisters and Brothers—As Secretary of the Board of Directors of the Odd Fellows Home, I present to you a brief statement of the conditions at the Home for the period of the past six months. A full financial report will be made at the close of the fiscal year October 31, 1918. During the last fiscal year ninety-four applications for admission to the Home were considered and of this number thirty-one adults and twenty-five children were accepted.

Death has removed nine of our afflicted ones since our last report, but the general health of our residents has been good. Two of our boys had light attacks of typhoid fever, but under careful nursing soon recovered. Several had measles and other diseases prevalent to childhood; but I am happy to say that at this time all the children are enjoying good health and our splendid record—"not a death among the children since the opening of the Home"—remains unbroken.

Surely Providence has been kind to us. Jesus said, "Suffer the little ones to come unto me and forbid them not"; the Great Teacher felt the importance of childhood, and Odd Fellowship is honoring this command in caring for the orphan. God has shown mercy on us and through His unbounded kindness has let us keep all our children. The boys and girls are bright and happy, reflecting the love and care of Brother and Sister Lockhart, and I feel I can not say too much in praise of them, for they are untiring in their interests of the Home, for both the orphan and the aged.

The residents of our Home are patriotic; when conservation of food was presented to them, they were glad to do their bit in conserving. Some of the sisters are doing Red Cross work, thereby extending the hand of mercy to those in the trenches fighting for liberty and democracy throughout the world. Two of our boys, Raymond and Chester Kautz, have enlisted and are now in training.

The present time in our own country and our own State is one of extreme seriousness; our boys in the trenches, who must be fed, clothed and equipped to fight, need every available assistance, and it falls upon us to use every effort. The present conditions have caused high prices, scarcity of certain foods and materials, and it is up to us, through economy, sacrifice, intelligent living and expending, to maintain our Home at its present high standard.

The highest enrollment in the history of the Home was reached in February last; 191 was the report at that time, 48 of that number being children. The highest per capita cost for the past six years will no doubt occur this year, and this, with the increased enrollment, together with a probable loss in membership, all works against our finances.

In November, 1914, at the suggestion of the Home Board, the per capita tax of 15 cents paid to the Home for maintenance, and which was paid from the Rebekah Assembly tax, was reduced to 13 cents in order that the Assembly might have some additional funds to meet a deficit in the Assembly funds at that time. In 1914 the Home finances were in an easy condition and the Home Board was glad to suggest this change in order to meet the deficit mentioned.

The present financial condition is quite the reverse and the Home Board is now trying to provide for a shortage in our funds to maintain the Home under the present unusual and abnormal conditions. We are therefore asking that the per capita tax for the maintenance of the Home be again re-established to 15 cents, which was the amount paid prior to that time. As everyone realizes the existing conditions, we ask your assistance in every possible way.

I am now nearing the end of my term as your representative on the Home Board. At the reorganization of the Board, five and one-half years ago, I was elected Secretary, and it has been my pleasure to be present at every meeting held during that time, a record of which I am very proud. I pray that God will give me health and strength to attend all the meetings until the end of my term. I speak truly when I say that I love this work, not alone for the honor that it brought to me, but for the good that I might do. I have served you to the very best of my ability and if I have not disappointed you I am more than happy.

Gratitude is one virtue essential in Friendship, and in my closing I desire to again thank Sister Nichols for the appointment, and also Sister Stipp for my reappointment, and assure them that the memories of these six years will be fondly cherished. Rebekah Odd Fellowship has ever been dear to me and I promise to forever labor with you in the field for the promotion of our noble Order, ever upholding the principles of Friendship, Love and Truth.

Board of Directors Odd Fellows Home.

Harry E. Kelley, P. G., offered the following resolution, which was referred to the Legislative Committee:

ANDERSON, IND., May 15, 1918.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

As Representative of Anderson Lodge, No. 131, I. O. O. F., of Anderson, Ind., I have been instructed to offer the following resolution:

Be it Resolved, That the first paragraph of Section 99 of the General Laws be amended to read as follows:

"Dues shall be paid quarterly on or before the last day of each quarter, for the next quarter succeeding."

Respectfully submitted,

HARRY E. KELLEY.

On motion, the Grand Lodge took a recess until 1:30 p. m.

WEDNESDAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

MAY 22, 1:30 p. m.

The Grand Lodge reassembled pursuant to adjournment, with the same officers present as at the forenoon session.

After prayer by the Grand Chaplain, the Deputy Grand Master, by order of the Grand Master, declared the Grand Lodge open for the transaction of business.

J. T. Arbuckle, P. G. Rep., from the special committee on controversy between English Lodge, No. 596, and Fargo Lodge, No. 886, made the following report, which was considered and adopted, and both the report and the agreement attached were ordered printed in the record of this Grand Lodge:

RUSHVILLE, IND., May 17, 1918.

To Honorable W. E. Deupree, Grand Master, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Dear Sir and Brother—The undersigned, appointed by you as a commissioner charged with the duty of negotiating an adjustment of the differences existing between English Lodge, No. 596, I. O. O. F., and Fargo Lodge, No. 886, I. O. O. F., begs leave to report that I have performed such duty and submit herewith the result of my efforts. I left my home on Tuesday, May 14th, and arrived in English at 7 o'clock p. m. that evening. I had a conference with some of the members of English Lodge on that evening, and arranged for a meeting of the committees appointed by each lodge for next morning. Such committees met at the lodge hall of English Lodge about 9 o'clock a. m. Wednesday, May 15th, and each lodge, through its committee, stated its side of the controversy. The committee from English Lodge contended that the jurisdiction line should be located three miles north of English, for the reason that the Fargo lodge, when making application for a charter, had fixed the distance between the two lodges at six miles, a copy of such application having been furnished to English Lodge and in its possession at this time, and such application does show that the distance between the two lodges is six miles, when as a matter of fact the distance, as the crow flies, is less than six miles, Fargo being located a little less than five miles north and about one mile west. English opposed the institution of Fargo Lodge, and claims that the Grand Lodge was imposed upon, and that the Grand Lodge understood the distance to be six miles when such was not the case, and that because of this imposition on the Grand Lodge said English Lodge is entitled to have the jurisdiction line fixed three miles north of English. English also claims that two of the brothers who are claimed by Fargo Lodge were secured before the charter was granted to Fargo, and that they were informed by a Past Grand Master that they were entitled to these brothers for the reason that no charter had been granted and it was not certain that one would be, although these two brothers had signed the application for a charter for Fargo Lodge. English also claimed that they had tried faithfully to settle this controversy and had appointed a committee to meet with a like committee from Fargo Lodge, and that the reason said committee did not meet at the time Fargo Lodge designated was because said English did not get any notice of such meeting until nearly three weeks after the date of meeting, and had a letter showing a post mark nearly that long after the date fixed. English also claimed that Fargo had taken two members residing in her jurisdiction and that they had given consent to take two more. English contends that they have tried honestly and faithfully to settle this difficulty, but could not get a meeting with Fargo.

Fargo contends that they have given English notice of a meeting of the committee, but that English would not meet with them; that English has taken in four brothers from their jurisdiction without consent; that they are entitled to have the jurisdiction line halfway between the two lodges as the crow flies, regardless of the matters contained in their application for a charter, because the law fixes the jurisdiction line. Fargo further, like English, contends that they have been diligent in trying to get the differences adjusted but have failed and that they are not at fault.

They wrangled and discussed the matter pro and con for several hours and got no nearer a settlement, and finally broke off and separated. I made a plea for an exhibition of real Odd Fellowship on the part of both lodges, and proposed that we compromise the matter, each lodge giving in on some point; and finally, after much persuasion on the committees, secured an agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto, which is a settlement of all the differences except that English contended that Fargo should pay all, and finally reduced it to one-half, of the expense incurred by me in the settlement of the controversy. Fargo contended that you had stated that English should pay all the expense, and refused to agree to pay any part of it. I tried to reason with the brothers on the matter and tried to get them to agree to a division of the expense, which English agreed to but Fargo refused, and I think the matter would not have been settled at all and no agreement entered into if I had not finally persuaded them to agree that you should settle the question as to who should pay the bill. English contended that if you said they should pay the expense you did so believing that English was wholly to blame for the trouble, whereas they contended that they had done their part to settle the controversy and that Fargo was as much to blame for the trouble not having been settled as English. Of course I could not get them to agree upon this point, so it was finally agreed that the expense proposition should be left to you, and if you decided that it should be divided then they would stand by your decision in the matter and each would pay such portion as you indicated.

In my opinion, both lodges are somewhat to blame for the trouble, and there has been a spirit of contention existing which could not have been adjusted without the aid of outside help.

I have made copies of the agreement and sent one copy to English and one to Fargo, and the only matter left for your consideration is to decide the question as to whether the expense shall be divided or paid by one of the lodges, provided, of course, that you approve of the action I have taken and the settlement I have made. I think that Fargo got the best of the settlement in the matter of the location of the jurisdiction line, but English is content with the arrangement and it settles the question without a long-drawn-out controversy through the Grand Lodge, for I do not believe the lodges could ever agree among themselves unless they were to show a different spirit than they did when I was there.

I am attaching hereto the original agreement and also a rough plat of the jurisdiction line which was drawn at the time.

Since this matter has been settled to the satisfaction of both lodges, except the matter of expense, I suggest that the expense, which amounts to $15.93, be paid out of the Grand Lodge funds and in this way promote a feeling of harmony and good will between these lodges.

Respectfully submitted,

J. T. ARBUCKLE.

An agreement made by and between English Lodge, No. 596, located at English, Ind., and Fargo Lodge, No. 886, located at Fargo, Ind., for the purpose of establishing the jurisdiction line between the two lodges and settling differences now existing between the lodges and to create and maintain a more brotherly feeling between the lodges and the members of each, this agreement being made by the undersigned as members of committees appointed by the lodges authorized and empowered to perform the services above noted. It is agreed that the jurisdiction line between the two lodges from this time forth shall be the section line running east and west and dividing sections one (1) and twelve (12) in township two (2) south, range one (1) west, in Crawford County, Indiana, and that all south of said section line shall be in the jurisdiction of said English Lodge, and that all north of said section line shall be in the jurisdiction of said Fargo Lodge; and said line shall extend to the east and to the west on a straight line from said sections 1 and 12, so that it shall be the entire dividing line between the jurisdictions of the two lodges. And it is agreed that the members of each lodge are not to cross said line or go into the jurisdiction of the other lodge for the purpose of soliciting members, and it is further agreed that should a candidate living in one of the jurisdictions as above described make application to become a member of the lodge in the other jurisdiction, and with his application give good, valid and substantial reasons for wishing to join such lodge, then the lodge in whose jurisdiction such candidate resides, upon request being made, shall grant permission to the other lodge the right to admit such candidate.

It is charged by said Fargo Lodge that said English Lodge has taken in as members Charles Stainford, Alonzo Walton, Orrel Brown and Claude Roberts, who live in the jurisdiction of said Fargo Lodge, and it is charged by said English Lodge that said Fargo Lodge has taken in as members Samuel Wells and Andy Brown, who live in the jurisdiction of said English Lodge. All of the above applicants having been admitted without the consent of the other lodge, and in order to settle and adjust all disputes existing between the lodges as to the admission of the above members, it is agreed that said English Lodge shall pay to said Fargo Lodge the sum of ten ($10) dollars, being the admittance fees of said Alonzo Walton, and that this shall be accepted in full settlement and adjustment of all matters pertaining to the said members, and they shall be credited as members of the lodges to which they belong. It is further agreed that all costs and expenses incurred by the Grand Master or Grand Lodge in relation to this controversy is to be paid as designated by the Grand Master, and we agree that the lodge we represent will pay such portion of such expense as the Grand Master shall designate, if any.

This agreement is made in a spirit of compromise on the part of both lodges and in order to adjust and settle all differences existing between same and to promote and maintain a spirit of fraternity and brotherly love in this community and county, and we each, as individuals and for our lodges, promise to use our best endeavors to bring about such condition.

English Lodge, No. 596, vs. Birdseye Lodge, No. 604.

Opinion by George Shirts, P. G. Rep.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

This is an original proceeding in the Grand Lodge wherein the plaintiff claims the defendant owes it certain money for nurse hire.

In such cases the Grand Lodge has no jurisdiction to hear and determine the matter in the first instance, but Section 270 of the code provides it shall be submitted to a committee of Past Grands.

We therefore recommend that this case be dismissed.

William Knott vs. Blountsville Lodge, No. 305.

Opinion by Ulrich Z. Wiley, P. G. Rep.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

This is an original proceeding, the case having reached the Grand Lodge upon an agreed statement of facts signed by the parties.

By the agreed statement the following facts are presented for our consideration:

(1) The plaintiff became sick the 22d day of January, 1918, and was utterly incapacitated from labor of any kind until the 9th day of March, 1918.

(2) At the time he became sick he had been a member of the defendant lodge for forty-nine years.

(3) He was then residing within the jurisdiction of the General Relief Committee, I. O. O. F., of Muncie, Ind., and immediately after he became sick that fact was reported to said committee.

(4) On December 27, 1917, the plaintiff's son, William H. Knott, procured from the Delaware County National Bank of Muncie a cashier's check for $1.65, which was made payable to him, and by him sent to the Secretary of the defendant lodge by mail. The check reached the Secretary before the last meeting night for paying dues in the month of December, 1917. By oversight the said William H. Knott, the payee of the cashier's check, failed to endorse it, but in the letter accompanying the check it was stated that it was for the payment of the lodge dues of the plaintiff. On December 29, that being the last meeting night of the lodge for the quarter ending December, 1917, the Secretary returned the check by mail to William H. Knott, accompanied by a letter stating that the check had not been endorsed and that he could not use it, and further stating that the dues were $1.36. and also expressed regrets that the check had to be returned. On December 31st following, the letter and check were received by William H. Knott, and on the same date he exchanged the check for another like check for the amount of the dues as stated by the Secretary, mailed the check to the Secretary, and on January 5, 1918, the plaintiff received an official receipt for the same.

(5) On March 16, 1918, the Secretary, by letter, notified the Secretary of the Relief Committee at Muncie that plaintiff was delinquent, and therefore not entitled to benefits, and thereupon the General Relief Committee refused to allow plaintiff's claim for five weeks' benefits at the rate of $4.00 per week, aggregating $20.00.

(6) That the sole question to be determined is whether or not the effort of the plaintiff's son to pay said dues as above stated constituted a payment, so as to keep the plaintiff from becoming delinquent.

The question thus presented for our consideration appears to your committee to be one of easy solution.

While the agreed statement of facts does not show the date of the receipt of the cashier's check by the Secretary of the lodge, it is specifically shown that it was in his possession the 29th day of December, which was the last meeting night of the lodge for that quarter, for on that date the Secretary returned the check to the sender, for the reason that it had not been endorsed.

It being a cashier's check, and it appearing from the agreed statement of facts that the plaintiff's son purchased the check from the bank, neither the plaintiff nor his son had any control whatever over the money so paid. The inadvertence of plaintiff's son, the check having been made payable to his order, in not endorsing it, should not be held to be failure, under the facts stated, to pay the dues within the time specified by our law. In applying the law of Odd Fellowship to any given state of facts, we should not be more technical and harsh in its application than our courts are in applying the rules of law to any given state of facts before them.

The Supreme and Appellate Courts of Indiana have adopted stringent rules for the conduct of the business of the courts on appeal, one of which rules provides the manner in which briefs shall be prepared; and yet the courts have been liberal in the construction of such rule and have many times held that where good faith efforts have been made by attorneys to comply with the rule in the preparation of their briefs, and it can from the briefs fairly ascertain the questions in the record to be decided, although the briefs may not have been prepared in exact harmony with the provisions of the rule, yet the questions involved will be considered and decided.

The spirit of the law of Odd Fellowship is to deal fairly and equitably with its members, and it would be a reproach upon our law to hold, under the facts in this case, that there had not been a good faith effort to pay the plaintiff's dues within the time provided by law.

We have therefore reached the conclusion that the plaintiff was not delinquent at the time he became sick and that he is justly and rightfully entitled to benefits.

We therefore recommend the following:

That Blountsville Lodge, No. 305, I. O. O. F., of Indiana, be and it is hereby directed to pay to Bro. William Knott, the plaintiff herein, the sum of $20.00, covering the period of his sickness, and to pay the same within thirty days from this date.

George E. Hershman, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

No. 1413.

Wm. E. Daniels vs. Harmony Lodge, No. 784.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Grievances and Appeals, respectfully submit the following:

This case was before the Committee on Grievances and Appeals at the May and November sessions of 1917. At the May session said committee rendered a decision confirming report of Past Grands Committee, awarding Brother Daniels sick benefits in the sum of $104.00, which decision was approved by this Grand Lodge. (See May Proceedings, at p. 11165.) At the November session, 1917, it appeared from the Grand Master's report and certain letters referred to this committee, that said judgment had not been paid, and this committee having no power or authority to act on a complaint made in the form of letters, recommended that Brother Daniels file his petition against said lodge, if he had any grievance. (See November Proceedings, at p. 11476.)

From the petition filed herein by Brother Daniels, it appears that said judgment has not been paid, nor has any part thereof. To this petition Harmony Lodge, No. 784, has failed to file any reply or make any excuse as to why said judgment has not been paid, although having had notice of the filing of said petition.

We therefore recommend that said Harmony Lodge, No. 784, be ordered to pay to Brother Daniels said judgment and interest thereon within sixty days, and in case of default of such payment the Grand Master shall take up the charter of said lodge, and also take charge of all property belonging to said lodge.

U. Z. Wiley, P. G. Rep., from the Special Committee on the I. O. O. F. Home, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

Report of Special Home Committee.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

The Special Home Committee appointed by the Grand Master in vacation submits the following report:

The committee was appointed by the Grand Master for the purpose of visiting the Odd Fellows Home at Greensburg, Ind., to investigate in a general way the condition of the Home, the manner in which it is being managed by the Board of Directors and the Superintendent, and to interview the guests of the Home, with the end in view of making any suggestions or recommendations to the Grand Lodge that might be deemed important and to the best interests of the Home and its guests that the committee might determine after such visit and investigation.

Soon after the appointment of the committee it was called together by the Grand Master to meet him and Brother Leedy for a general conference as to the scope of the investigation that was expected to be made by the committee, and to hear any suggestions or recommendations that the Grand Master desired to make. That conference was held at the office of the Grand Master in the Odd Fellows Building in the presence of each member of the committee, the Grand Master and the Grand Secretary, at which a general plan of procedure was agreed upon.

The committee visited the Home on Thursday, May 16, 1918, arriving at Greensburg about nine o'clock a. m., and went immediately to the Home. Brother Lockhart, the Superintendent, had not been advised of our visitation, but received and greeted us most cordially and fraternally; and when we made our mission known to him he stated that he was very glad we came and said to us that he would be glad to afford us every opportunity to interview the guests, visit the hospital or any part or portion of the buildings or the grounds. He simply gave us a free hand to go where we pleased in the discharge of our duties.

We found it impossible to visit personally every adult guest in the Home, for they now number over 150, many of whom are very aged and infirm, some of whom are both blind and deaf. We did, however, put in our time diligently and visited the greater number of the adult guests and conferred personally with them.

We found the general condition of the Home most excellent. The grounds are beautifully kept, the guest rooms and the halls were found exceptionally clean and sanitary, and generally speaking the great majority of the guests expressed themselves as being well pleased with their treatment and the provisions made for them. It would be difficult indeed, and we think impossible, among so large a number of aged and infirm persons, to find that they one and all were entirely satisfied with their present surroundings, and we are frank to say that from many of them we listened to any complaints they had to make and talked in a fraternal spirit with them, and made many suggestions to them as to what we deemed to be to their best interests. We found the Home in most respects ideal, and we are glad to say that from one brother and his wife we heard the expression, "The Home is a real paradise."

Since our visitation, at the request of the committee, the Grand Master requested the Board of Directors and the Superintendent to meet with the committee and the Grand Master for a general conference growing out of matters that came to the knowledge of the committee, and that conference was held in the room of the Grievance and Appeals Committee on yesterday afternoon and lasted for two hours.

At that meeting the Grand Master made a statement giving his reasons for appointing your special committee, and at the conclusion of his statement one of the members of the committee made a general and detailed statement relating to the general information obtained by the committee from the many guests they interviewed. At that conference the Board of Directors was represented by Brothers Bradshaw and Longley, and Sister Barnett, the Secretary. At the conclusion of the statement made by one of the members of the committee there was a general discussion and exchange of views between all present, which we believe and are glad to report resulted in much good. It was the general consensus of opinion expressed at this conference that it might be well to continue the special committee for further investigations and recommendations, and that it would be better at this time for the committee not to make any detailed report or any final recommendations, as it was believed, and so expressed by all participating in the conference, that in this manner the best interests of the Home, its guests, and the Order at large could be best subserved. We cannot, in justice to the committee, the Board of Directors and the Superintendent, conclude this report without saying that we found each member of the Board and Brother Lockhart, the Superintendent, in perfect sympathy and harmony with the statements made by the committee at this conference, and they each expressed the thought that they desired to work and act in perfect harmony and would be glad to have the committee or the Grand Master make any suggestions or recommendations that might aid them in their duties in working out the very great and troublesome problem that confronts them in the management of the Home in its various details and interests.

Your committee are deeply impressed and want to put themselves on record by saying that we are certain that good and wholesome results will follow our visitation and investigation and the very harmonious conference it has been our pleasure to hold with the Grand Master and the Board of Directors.

A. A. Spears, P. G. M., in behalf of the Rebekah Assembly of Indiana, presented several resolutions adopted by the Assembly, asking for changes in certain laws of this Grand Lodge which relate to the Rebekah branch of the Order.

The several resolutions were referred, without reading, to the Legislative Committee.

U. Z. Wiley, P. G. Rep., representing the Board of Appeals on applications for admission to the I. O. O. F. Home, submitted the following report, which was ordered spread on record:

MAY 20, 1918.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, Rebekah Assembly and Grand Encampment, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

The Court of Appeals presents for your approval the following report:

The court met in Grand Lodge hall, 7:30 p. m., May 16, 1917, to consider the appeal of Koutz Lodge, No. 822, from the action of the Board of Directors of the I. O. O. F. Home Association, on the application of Frank Rathbun for admission to the Home. The decision of the court was withheld for further investigation of the case. However, soon after this meeting Brother Rathbun died, and no further action by the court was necessary.

The court also at this meeting examined letters and papers presenting an appeal from the action of the Board on the application of John D. Bitters, of Rochester Lodge, No. 47, for readmission to the Home. Investigation showed that this appeal had not come through the lodge as required by Rule 43, and the case was dropped. Later the Board acted favorably on Brother Bitters' application and he was readmitted to the Home.

In answer to a call from the Grand Secretary, the court again met in Grand Lodge hall August 11, 1917, to consider an appeal from the decision of the Board of Directors on the application of J. D. Powers, a member of Quincy Lodge, No. 200, of Elwood. Evidence in behalf of the Board's decision was presented by W. H. Bradshaw, in behalf of lodge by J. Frank Mann. After careful consideration of the evidence, both oral and written, the court decided that the affliction of Brother Powers did not conflict with Rule 12, therefore should not disbar him from becoming a member of the Home family.

A full and concise opinion of the court, stating the reasons for its decision, was written by Judge Wiley and sent to the Secretary of the Board of Directors, and Quincy Lodge, No. 200, was notified that the action of the Board on the application of J. D. Powers had been reversed by the Court of Appeals.

D. J. Troyer, P. G., from the special committee appointed at the November session, 1917, made the following report, which was considered and referred to the Legislative Committee:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your special committee, appointed at the November, 1917, session, and to which was referred the matter of membership of aged Odd Fellows whose lodges become defunct, beg to report that we have carefully considered the resolution of Past Grand Master Hollywood, introduced at the last session, together with laws of other Jurisdictions on the same subject, and recommend the adoption of the following:

ASSIGNMENT OF MEMBERS OF DEFUNCT LODGES.

Section 1. Any Odd Fellow over 50 years of age, and who has been in continuous membership for twenty-five years or more, and whose lodge has become defunct and was in good standing at the time of its so becoming defunct, may, upon making application upon such form as may be prescribed for assignment, same to be sent to the Grand Secretary, be assigned by him to the subordinate lodge in this Jurisdiction nearest to his place of residence; or if two or more lodges be equidistant, then to either of such lodges, and upon such assignment shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges and benefits hereinafter provided, so long as he shall continue to pay his quarterly dues and is not suspended or expelled, and there be sufficient funds in the fund hereinafter provided for to pay such benefits and expenses.

Such application for assignment shall be made within six months from the date of the surrender or taking up of the charter of the lodge to which such member belonged.

Sec. 2. Each assigned member shall pay to the lodge to which he is assigned the sum of $1.50 per quarter, in advance, in the same manner and at the same time as is provided for regular members, shall be given an official certificate for such payment, and shall be subject to all of the penalties for non-payment as is any regular member of the Order. Such official certificate shall be endorsed that it does not authorize the payment of nurse hire. All dues collected from such assigned members shall be remitted quarterly to the Grand Secretary, commencing with the quarter ending in March, 1919, and the Grand Secretary shall deposit such sums in a separate fund, to be known as the "Assigned Members Fund."

Sec. 3. Each assigned member in good standing, and who is not under suspension for cause, shall be entitled to sick benefits as follows: For the first thirteen weeks' sickness or disability, after the first week, the sum of $3.00 per week; for the next succeeding thirteen weeks, $2.00 per week; alternating $3.00 and $2.00 until benefits have been paid for fifty-two weeks.

Sec. 4. Upon the death of an assigned member, who at the time of death is in good standing and not suspended, the sum of $50.00 shall be paid towards defraying the expenses of his funeral, to be paid as prescribed by the General Laws.

All benefits and funeral expenses shall be paid by the lodge to which the member shall have been assigned.

Sec. 5. All assigned members shall pay, in addition to the dues herein provided for, any Home tax or other assessment that may be levied in general by the lodge to which he is assigned against its membership, except the assessment for nurse hire.

No benefits shall be paid, or funeral expense paid until after the member shall have been assigned for a period of six months, and then only when sufficient money is on hand in the special fund to pay the same.

Sec. 6. The subordinate lodge shall be reimbursed for all moneys paid such an assigned member for sick benefits, or for funeral expenses paid, from the special fund, upon proper certificate, signed by the Noble Grand and Secretary of the lodge under the seal of the lodge, such reimbursement to be made by warrant duly drawn upon such fund by the Grand Secretary.

Sec. 7. Assigned members shall have no voice or vote in the lodges to which they have been assigned. No amounts for nurse hire shall be paid for or on account of such assigned members from such special fund: Provided, That such member shall be entitled to attentive benefits from the lodge to which he has been assigned, with the exception of the payment of nurse hire.

Sec. 8. The Grand Secretary shall keep a record of the receipts and disbursements of such fund, the names of assigned members and to what lodges assigned and make a report at each session of the Grand Lodge.

Faternally submitted,

JAMES L. HARMAN,
L. G. CARPENTER,
D. J. TROYER,
Committee.

W. M. Nauer, P. G. Rep., from the Committee on Memorial, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Your Committee on Memorial respectfully submits the following:

Brother Marcellus A. Chipman, P. G. M. and P. G. Rep., was born in Noblesville, Ind., September 27, 1852, and died of pneumonia at his home in Anderson, Ind., April 16, 1918, aged 65 years, 6 months and 20 days. He left the widow, two daughters, two sisters and nearly 85,000 Odd Fellow brothers in Indiana to mourn his loss.

He was a graduate of the Indiana University Law School, and practiced law for over forty-five years. In 1888 he was elected judge of the circuit court, and was a member of a commission to codify the laws of Indiana, having received the appointment from Governor W. T. Durbin.

He was elected Grand Warden of the Grand Lodge of Indiana at the November session of the Grand Lodge, 1893, elected Deputy Grand Master November, 1894, and elected Grand Master November, 1895. He filled this office with much honor and distinction. He represented Indiana in the Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1896 and 1897, serving on the Committee of Grievances and Appeals.

He was an earnest and devout Odd Fellow, always doing all he could for Odd Fellowship. He served on the Home Board from May, 1897, to May, 1900, and his service in this great cause was appreciated by the residents of the Home and all Odd Fellows. He served as a Trustee of the Grand Lodge for nearly twenty years with much efficiency and devotion. Since his term as Grand Master he served continuously on the Committee of Judiciary until his death. His funeral was conducted by the Order at his home in Anderson, Grand Master W. E. Deupree and Deputy Grand Master H. A. Winterrowd officiating. Many Grand and Past Grand officers of the Grand Lodge and Grand Encampment attended the funeral.

It is given but few men to fill so many important places in the Order as did Brother Chipman, and few, if any, were more zealous and enthusiastic. We all listened to his opinions and advice with the belief that he was always right. He was one of our strongest pillars, and his passing away has caused the structure to tremble. At this particular time when we are in need of such strength as was his he could not be spared, but the God of the Universe saw fit to take him unto himself, and we can but say: Amen. Peace be to his memory.

Frank McIlwain, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

We, your Committee on Memorial, desire to submit the following relative to the passing of P. G. P. John W. Cooper:

Almost coincident with the passing of the old year, there passed into the Great Beyond the spirit of one of our most beloved and venerated patriarchs, John W. Cooper. With that quiet dignity which characterized his life and with a full realization of the change about to take place, he peacefully fell asleep with the dying year, December 31, 1917.

John W. Cooper was born in Rush County, Ind., July 18, 1837. The son of pioneer parents, his education was gained in the log schoolhouse nearby and at a local academy. After two years' study of law—having been married in the meantime to Frances Simmons—he removed to Kokomo, where he entered the practice of law and soon attained prominence therein. He was deeply interested in the political life of his community and was frequently chosen to represent the people in offices of trust, among which were clerk of circuit court, mayor of his city and revenue collector. He was a leader in all public improvements and enterprises and helped in the development of a straggling village into a leading, hustling, representative American city, known far and wide for its products and attainments.

Brother Cooper became a member of the Order when he was initiated into Kokomo Lodge, No. 133. After filling the various offices in his lodge, he became a member of the Grand Lodge and Encampment and was exalted to the honorable position of Grand Patriarch in 1891, and in due time Grand Representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Any words of ours would be futile on this occasion. The best evidence of the worth and character of any man is the respect and esteem of his neighbors and fellow citizens. These Brother Cooper had, as is evidenced by the many offices of trust and honor bestowed upon him.

To the lives and character of men like Brother Cooper our Order owes much. The respect and esteem of the outside world is derived from these landmarks among men; the mere fact that men of his calibre are eager and willing to devote their lives to the works of Odd Fellowship is convincing proof of the worth and excellence of our principles; our works are necessarily in secret, but the lives of such as he cannot be hid from a discerning world.

We cannot refrain from a word of regret at the loss of our beloved brother, that he could not be spared longer to sit in our councils and mingle with us at the meeting of this Grand Lodge. But we should be thankful for his long and useful life—four score years—so diligently spent in the promulgation of the principles of Friendship, Love and Truth. May we be benefited by his example, is our earnest prayer.

To the widow and children we extend this belated word of consolation and sympathy, with the assurance of a happy reunion bye and bye. This Grand Lodge has sustained the loss of a valuable member, the community a useful citizen and the family a loving husband and father.

Thomas R. Jessup, P. G. Rep., after the adoption of the foregoing reports from the Memorial Committee, spoke in reference to the life of our late brother, P. G. M. Chipman, as follows:

Grand Master and Brothers—The reading of the memorial for Past Grand Master Chipman calls to my mind an incident in my career as a member of this Grand Lodge. The first brother that greeted me when I came as a representative from No. 212, in the old lodgeroom, was Brother Chipman, having been acquainted with him in my home town before he moved to the city of Anderson. My career as a member of this Grand Lodge, and what little work I have accomplished herein, was guided largely by the influence, by the advice, by the kindly chiding, sometimes, of three or four brothers that have passed away, with the exception of Grand Secretary Leedy, and among them was Past Grand Master Chipman. On my retiring as Grand Master of this great State and returning to you the confidence that you reposed in me, this great body gave to me a jewel, and it fell to the lot of Brother Chipman to present me that jewel on behalf of the Grand Lodge. And, my brothers, when that memorial was read telling of his death I regretted exceedingly that my own physical condition was such that his funeral I could not attend, and it called to mind the words that he used in that memorable address when presenting the jewel, when he said, "You have learned a lesson, my brother, and I believe you have tried to act it out," and that was in giving, establishing and putting in force the first tenet of Odd Fellowship—that is, to give out.

Indiana has lost, by the taking away by the god of nature, some splendid men since I became a member of this Grand Body. My own town has lost Brother Binkley, Past Grand Master. My adjoining town has lost Brother Chappell, Past Grand Master. To the north of me Past Grand Master Davis, and I might speak of others, but none has touched me like the passing away, like the going out somewhere, of the soul of one of the grandest of men, Brother Chipman. A man who loved his brother, a man who spent his life doing good to others. A man who never lost an opportunity to take by the hand a brother, cautioning, guiding, advising and directing, and helping him along the great highway of life to a better citizenship and a better manhood. It touched me deeply. No longer will I hear his voice. Never again will his kindly speech and conversation overflow this Grand Body, never again will his brotherly and lovely presence grace our assemblage. But that something in humanity, I care not what you call it, will live in my memory, and it will not be long until the god of nature will stop at my door and I will pass away to my reward, and I shall never forget the kindness, the ever loving affection, I might say the brotherly love of this great man.

I feel it my due to say a word in his memory, because you that knew him intimately knew him but to love him, and you will remember him as one of the truest of men. I thank you.

Edw. Farrer, P. G. Rep., from the standing Committee on Printing, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Printing Committee, desire to report that during the past term we have, as heretofore, striven to guard the interests of the Grand Lodge to the extent of our ability in the discharge of those duties for the performance of which this committee was appointed.

We have carefully audited all bills rendered for printing and office supplies and have renewed the contract with Wm. B. Burford for another year, on the same schedule of prices in effect during the past year. This we did after due deliberation, in the belief that such action would prove advantageous to the Order.

The bills have been unusually heavy this term, owing mainly to the production of books ordered by this Grand Body at its last session.

While the cost of manufacture and introduction of the books of the new uniform system of bookkeeping has been quite large, we are pleased to report that the receipts from the sales of them have been sufficient to more than defray the expense.

In the hope that our action will meet with your approval, this report is fraternally submitted.

H. C. Rodgers, the Representative from Howard Lodge, No. 71, asked permission to address the Grand Lodge, which was granted, and the brother thereupon addressed the Grand Lodge briefly upon the duties of Odd Fellows.

Sherman Mott, P. G., offered the following resolution, which was referred to the Legislative Committee:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

A Bill to Amend Section 146, Relating to Registering of Transient or Sojourning Members, and Fixing the Jurisdiction of Lodges.

Provided, That in localities where two or more lodges are located, the question of jurisdiction of lodges therein shall mean that members must register with the lodge nearest to where he resides, and should a dispute arise as to which lodge a member should register, the same shall be settled by the District Deputy of the locality, and his decision shall be final.

SHERMAN MOTT,

P. G., Indianapolis Lodge, No. 465.

Bro. Philip Zoercher, being present as a representative of that branch of the government relating to food conservation, the Grand Lodge took a recess and invited non-members of the Grand Lodge to enter and listen to the address of Brother Zoercher. Numerous visitors entered, and Brother Zoercher addressed the assemblage as follows:

Brother Zoercher: Grand Master, Sisters and Brothers—Two days ago I was asked by the Speakers' Bureau of the State Council of Defense to come over here to the Rebekah Assembly and Grand Lodge and talk ten minutes to each of these bodies in reference to the war saving stamp campaign. This week all over the State of Indiana we are having the Red Cross drive. Here in Indianapolis we are having a war chest drive that is taking care of all the drives, Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., French Relief, and so forth. Here in this community we are settling it all in one drive. Next week begins the drive all over the State, the war saving drive, that is purchasing stamps, teaching the importance of thrift in buying these stamps, and the baby bonds and war saving certificates. It is not necessary for me to explain these certificates. I hope there is not one that has not had that explained, and I hope that when this drive begins in your community next Monday, wherever you are in the State of Indiana, that Odd Fellows will fall right in line and whenever possible aid with all their might and power. It is another way of helping to give the Government money to help carry on this great war. It takes money. It takes money to build ships; it takes money to buy machinery necessary to equip those ships; it takes money to buy the uniforms; it takes money to buy the ammunition; it takes money to operate the war. There ought not to be a question in the minds of any of our citizens, in any citizen of this country, as to his duty. The other day when I opened the campaign on the Red Cross they said, "You tell us to buy Liberty Bonds; you tell us to buy bonds until it hurts. Whatever you do buy stamps and war saving certificates. It is one of the best investments in the world." There ought not to be any question at all as to what we should do. The Government wants to inculcate the idea of thrift and saving. You know when they are matured they will all be paid, the Government is back of them, you have its promise of payment, and no citizen ought to want to cash them until the Government says it is ready.

When the report came out that Charley James was in the list of dead it deeply touched me and brought the war near to me. He lived three or four doors south of where I live. I have gone by that home and seen two stars in the service flag. Only two boys, and that mother has given all; she could give no more. And one of those boys, the report was given yesterday in one of the Indianapolis papers, was killed. He made the sacrifice; he gave his all; he gave his life. Ought we to complain if the Government asks us to do anything we can? We ought to do what these soldiers do. We ought to be willing to give our all, and you haven't done your duty unless you give your all. (Great applause.)

If we could only have it written on our minds and hearts, the enemy we have to deal with, there would be no question. Standing on this platform last November there was given a picture by our Brother Cockrum, there is no one could tell it any better, that remained with me and I have repeated it time and again in going over the State. You remember that he said the war had come very close home to him. That working in his office was a French girl who had been with him for eleven years, and she had become like a member of the family. That she had a sister in France that was in a pitiable condition, and this sister wrote to the girl in Brother Cockrum's office stating that you must take my children. I can't look after them; my husband has given up his life for his country and I am destitute and you must take my children. This sister in Brother Cockrum's office had a brother at Gary, Indiana, and the two of them sent money to bring them over here, and when they got to New York, a boy and a girl, the boy came minus a hand and the girl, thirteen years old, in a worse condition than death. Three months ago this story was told by an eminent judge: When the order was given to burn all towns in a certain section, both human and other property should perish. A mother with her baby in the home saw them apply the torch to the building and she wanted to get her baby out and the soldiers would not let her go, and she pleaded so hard, she wrung her hands so violently, and she sobbed so feverishly, that on orders a soldier went to get the child, and he did. When he came out he had the child bayoneted and it was dangling on the end of his bayonet. Some of you heard Peats, and he said that he thought he was to fight for the country, and when he got there he saw some outrages that had been committed on the women of that country, and the first day after that they met in a German trench twenty men. They were given the privilege of living long enough to get to the first trench and eighteen of those twenty Huns were gotten that had been guilty of the outrages.

The only nation that has violated the sacredness of the Red Cross is the German government. They said in years gone by that they would recognize it, and have recognized it; yet the German government, absolutely, has been the first nation in the world to violate it. Ships and hospitals that have the Red Cross insignia on them are absolutely not protected, but wherever they have gone they fire, pillage and destroy them. That is the kind of an enemy America is facing today. The German soldiers say it has been put into their hearts that the more cruel and inhuman and the more outrageous they can be, as their soldiers think, the quicker they can get the enemy. They have the idea that by these outrages it will cow those against them. They forget that every time they commit an outrage like that it stirs the red blood in the veins of every one. It only nerves their arm and steels their souls to greater deeds of daring. Up to the 6th day of April, 1917, there might have been on American soil pacifists, but since the 6th day of April, 1917, there is not room for them, and there should not be room in this country for a pacifist because (tremendous applause) when the lawmaking body of our Government declared a state of war existed, from that time on every American citizen should consider himself enlisted. Not only the business men but every citizen. Never has a nation in the world placed her ideals higher than the United States Government. When war was declared that settled it, and every man must be an American. We are not asking anything inhuman; we are not asking for a foot of soil; we are not asking for territory. We are only asking the many thousands fighting in the interests of humanity, the world over, that the world be made safe for democracy. And where did our Government get that idea? From the immortal words that fell from the lips of Abraham Lincoln on the field at Gettysburg. (Great applause.)

When Abraham Lincoln there said, "We cannot dedicate this battlefield. It has been dedicated by the blood of the heroes who gave up their lives here. Rather let us, the living, be dedicated here to the unfinished work that they have thus far so nobly carried on that the nation under God shall have a new birth of freedom, and that the government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth." That was our ideal; that was the ideal given to us by him, and our Government is trying to make that the ideal of the world, and when this war is over it will be the ideal of the whole world. (Loud applause.) (A voice: That's the truth.) That flag has never yet trailed in defeat. (Renewed and long applause.) (A voice: And she never will.) It has never yet been unfurled except it was fighting for the cause of humanity and liberty. (Loud applause.) And those people over there are looking to us to be the deliverer. Will we make good? (Loud applause.) (Many voices: We will and we have never yet failed when tried.) Then in order to back up the boys over there we must uphold our Government by furnishing the money to back up this war. (A voice: They shall have it.)

When you go back home instil the idea into your community that you are going to see there is a larger sale of thrift stamps. Some of the ladies say we are having wheatless days, but how about smokeless days. (Applause.) That is one way to get some of those thrift stamps. Make up your mind you will not smoke for one day and then two days, and the money you are going to spend to get cigars, lay it aside; give it to that young boy of yours at home or that young daughter, and let them buy thrift stamps, and you will be surprised how much that will amount to. Only do that two days in the week and there will be a boom to thrift stamps we never had before.

I want to give you one further picture. Last summer a Scottish lad was in this country, and he told a story. They are going to war and being killed. This is what he said: When his regiment, of which he was chaplain, had come into one of those French towns, they took the town on Sunday morning, and they hunted the largest meeting place they could find, and they went into a theater. That night they had services there, and when he took the Good Book he turned to the story of the Man of Calvary. He said he didn't know why he turned to that story, but when he read the text from the Book, he said to the boys: "Just as the Savior went up that hill and gave up his life that man might live, so on tomorrow you boys will be giving up your lives for mankind and you will be following in the footsteps of the Savior." And that night he met a lonely soldier on the picket lines and they clasped hands, and they held on hands, and the soldier held on to his hand, and finally the soldier said "I want to thank you for what you said Sunday night." Don't you see the story had gone home? It had made its impression on that soldier. Was he afraid? No, he was not afraid. He was ready to go anywhere. Why? Because he saw a picture of the Savior of Man nailed to the cross suffering for mankind, and that boy was doing his duty. He was following in the footsteps of the Master because that boy was fighting for humanity. We have all been touched. All of our homes have been touched. You can't go into a home now but what there has been some change there. In the street cars and wherever we go we have found the women doing this work; they are doing work and making sacrifices they didn't think of before. Go with me over to the Circle and see the results of this war chest drive. The people are willing to give, and what they give to that war chest don't come back, except it is better to give than to receive. (Applause.) You remember the story when the Master said, "When I was sick ye ministered unto me, when I was in prison ye visited me, when I was naked ye clothed me," and they said, "Master, when did we do those things," He answered, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these ye have done it unto me." We are doing this for humanity. Don't let anybody talk to you about peace. A peace now would be a German peace and a German peace would be worse than war. (Loud applause.) A voice: That's so.) Russia has a German peace. God help her. We are going to help her. I could talk to you about German propaganda, but I am not going to do it. I want to warn you about German propaganda. That killed the morale of the army in Russia and threatened Italy. We have had it in this country. You remember when the women were asked to do things for the Red Cross? Don't you know this mother prepared one of those sweaters and she secreted a five-dollar bill in the pocket, and she looked and examined that sweater she herself had made, but her soldier boy had to buy the sweater. Some placed, they said, a five-dollar bill and some placed ten dollars. That is German propaganda.

Once this peace is finally made I believe there will be sitting at the head of the table an American citizen. (Loud applause.) (A voice: You know there will be.) Colonel Root or Colonel House, I care not which. (Applause.) Under the existence of all the conditions and what we have done in that time I would like to see the sword of that infamous Hindenburg turned over to our own General John J. Pershing, and that noble "Black Jack" ride in triumph at the head of the procession. (Long applause.) And I believe truly that peace will not come until the world is made safe from any other wars, and when this war is finally over it can be truthfully said the swords may be beaten into plowshares and the spears into pruning-hooks, for men will be brothers ever after that. I thank you. (Great and prolonged applause.)

The audience sang one verse of "America."

The Grand Chaplain, C. L. DeBow, was invited to address the audience, which he did in a most earnest and eloquent manner, speaking for many minutes, but unfortunately for this record, it was impossible to secure this address.

After which the audience sung another stanza of "America."

Bro. Charles J. Orbison, P. G., was invited to address the audience, which he did, speaking as follows:

Grand Master, Sisters and Brothers: As I have listened to the eloquent remarks of my brother, Philip Zoercher, and have listened to your generous applause, I am reminded of a story. A chap was cast up on an island, seemingly uninhabited by civilized man, his only companions, as he thought, being wild animals and wilder men, and he hid in a cave by day wondering what minute would be his last, and when the last rays of the setting sun had faded from his island home and the stars commenced to twinkle in the heavens, and as the beasts began to roar out through the night, he crawled out of his haven of refuge and through the underbrush, and so upon hands and knees, groveling fearfully and stealthily, he crawled out of his haven of refuge and through the underbrush, looking to the right and left, sometimes gazing into the burning eyes of wild animals. He finally came to a clearing and there he saw a thatched house, from the window of which had shone the light that he had seen, and he commenced to rise to his feet when he heard some wild shouts and some fearful imprecations. Down on his hands and knees backward he commenced to crawl towards the place of his refuge. He thought he had fallen into a settlement of cannibals, who were dividing the spoils of victory, when suddenly above the tumult and above the noise he heard a human voice speaking a language he well understood, and that voice sounded out this expression, "What in the hell did you trump my ace for?" (Laughter and applause.) He arose to his feet and he rushed to the house, shouting in the exultation of his soul, "Thank God, I am among Christians." (Laughter and long applause.) And so don't you know that it is mighty fine to be in the company of ladies and gentlemen, men and women, that love the flag and are willing to be and to do and to give that the old flag may be magnified the world around. Back in history we find that every time a power, every time an influence, has put things in the way of civilization, attempting to block its progress, civilization has ridden over it, and today we are further along in the development of the world and in reaching out for that perfection which we strive for than ever before in the world's history. Belshazzar had his Cyrus and his Persian hosts, Phillip the Second had his William, Charles the First had his Cromwell and his pirates, George the Third had his Washington and soldiers, slavery had its Abraham Lincoln, and in this year of our Lord, 1918, Kaiser Wilhelm the Second has his Woodrow Wilson and 100,000,000 American citizens. (Long, loud and continued applause.) Sometimes some people pray for things themselves. We are all praying for peace, hoping for peace, longing for peace, but only such a peace, if you please, as will remove all obstacles out of the way of the path of civilization; only a peace that spells the elimination of autocracy and greed and encroachment in the world. (Applause.) And until we can have such a peace, until we can have a world guarantee of democracy, it is our business and our duty to fight and to sacrifice and to give what we have.

Odd Fellowship should be the first institution recognizing the unselfishness of this war. As far as I understand history there never has been a war fought before but was a selfish war—a war to get something for the warring elements, even in our own country. We fought the Revolutionary War for freedom, and in the Civil War we fought that war for the freedom of the States and freedom of service; but don't you know this is a war we are fighting that is absolutely unselfish and for the good of humanity? A few months ago we listened and we heard in the home the beautiful cries of children, and we said we are glad we are living in free America. We hear the cries of outraged womanhood and we say as we look at our wives and take them in our arms, thank God we are living in a country free from those things. We see cities burned, fields devastated, homes put in ruins, and we say to ourselves is it not awful; like the priest that went by on the other side, like the Levite that looked but passed by on the other side; but in the last year we have caught the spirit of the Good Samaritan. We have heard the cries, and we have heeded the call and we have declared war upon the greatest enemy that civilization has ever had, and having declared war we have declared it is not going to be a paper war. You know the Kaiser said the American people loved the almighty dollar so much that they could not fight and they would not fight. A few days ago when I read an account of a small detachment of American soldiers that entered the enemy's trenches and had fought and captured them and put them on the run and how they took them prisoners, I thought they are commencing to realize the Yankee can fight and that they will fight. (Much applause.) Some one has said, "Oh, look at the men we are sending; think of the treasure that it is costing." Why, it is worth every dollar of treasure we possess. It is worth all the good, rich American blood we have that civilization cannot be moved backward, and that freedom, equality, civilization, Christianity and fraternity may become more and more manifest in the world. Yes, we have given 500,000 and will give a million, two million, five million. If President Wilson should say five million, just as many men it will take to crush the German power, we will send. (Long and continued applause.) Let me give you a vision: As sure as the sun rises in the east tomorrow morning, just as sure as God rules in the universe, so sure are we going to win this war. (Prolonged applause.) (A voice: We will.) A vision, let me give it to you. Let me picture the day, and may it come soon, when our boys will go over the top, and over the top, driving the Huns back until they are fighting on German soil. (Loud applause.) And we will not stop fighting and we will not stop driving until the Star-Spangled Banner floats on the custom house in the city of Berlin (loud applause, shouts and cheering) and our soldiers march down the streets to the tune of the Star-Spangled Banner. (Loud applause.) (A voice: They'll do it, too.) Going, saving, giving. Oh, how dearly they are going. Have you watched the boys leaving your stations; have you seen the smile upon their faces? Have you seen the look of determination, have you read their letters? They just want to get one good crack at the Kaiser. (Applause.) Some of us are not going. Some of us, necessarily, must stay at home. But we can do a great good with a hundred million army of workers backing the boys in the trenches of France. The day has come when we must draw the lines sharply and distinctly. The day of promise is past. The day of inaction and slackers and traitors has long since gone by. Every man must stand up and be counted for or against. And when I see a man so ungrateful, so pusillanimous and selfish as to stand over his possessions and say, "This is not my war; let those that started it fight it. I had to make my money; I have had to work through the years to accumulate my fortune, and now I am going to hold it." I tell him that while he was making it, floating over him, protecting him and safe-guarding him and vouchsafing unto him every needed blessing, was the Star-Spangled Banner, and when that flag is crying for help he stands up with the slacker, in the spirit of the traitor, and refuses. That kind of a chap is not worthy of being called an American citizen. (Loud applause.) And I will tell you what ought to be done, and I wish there was a law by which it could be done, for the Government to step in and take his money and back up the boys in the trenches, and then say to Mr. Slacker and unto Mr. Traitor, "Now here are the rags and the wooden shoes that you would give to this country, here are your passports; go back and fight for the Kaiser that you love, and get out of this country never more to return." (Long continued applause and voices: That is just right.)

Conservation! Saving! Oh you good ladies who are backing us through this war. It is a splendid mark of patriotism for the women of this land to help, and the women are helping to win this war by conservation and saving. I ran across a woman some time ago. She was not a red-blooded American woman. She was not even an excuse of a woman. She had been made newly rich and she was talking in that affected down east brogue. I like to hear a Yankee talk, but I do detest somebody who has spent an hour or two at New York and comes back with style. If I was born and lived a Hoosier, good old Hoosier brogue is good enough for me. (Applause.) This lady was saying, "I don't like this man Mr. Hoover; he is establishing those meatless days, and ever since I was a girl I have found it necessary to have at our evening meal a nice porterhouse steak, and I am not going to do away with our meat; that is the best part of it, and we will have our porterhouse steak." And I wanted to take that woman by the hair and drag her across the United States and put her in a ship and take her to France and put her in one of those hospitals with the pale faced French women and there keep her with plain black bread; and then I wanted to give the poor French women one square meal by taking the porterhouse steak from the lady and giving it to the French women. (Applause.) Giving and saving, and the man and woman that won't save and serve is not worthy of citizenship. They are slackers. Some of us are near-sighted and instead of going to an oculist and getting glasses we make our own glasses and put silver dollars in the place of glass so we cannot see above and beyond. What we need is glass, so we can see and feel, and seeing and believing will make us want to give.

We are in the midst of a great Red Cross drive. I was over at Brazil last Sunday night. Not as many people there as are here this afternoon, and when the call came we raised seventeen thousand dollars in that meeting. The people are commencing to know, the dollars are beginning to come, and the more dollars we send there the greater the good done against the Kaiser. The Red Cross angels of mercy are full of loving sacrifice; the earth herself doth tremble as at the time of the earthquake; the Red Cross is there saving the one and caring for the other. When great conflagrations sweep cities and while the firemen are in the midst of the flaming elements the Red Cross is there to help save and alleviate. And when our first American soldiers touched their feet upon French soil the Red Cross was there to help save and minister unto them. The Red Cross will be there when they go over the top. The Red Cross will be there to cool the fevered brow and to apply their healing influences and bring the boys back to us. And the Red Cross will protect each.

Going, saving, giving! That is our slogan, that is our obligation, that is our duty.

Then come it may as come it will for all that,
That truth and worth o'er all the earth
May bear the grief and all that.
For all that and all that,
It is coming yet for all that,
That man to man the world o'er
Shall brothers be for all that.

And out of the tumult and out of the hurry and out of the sacrifice of this war is coming new responsibilities, new sunshine of bright glory and a new fraternity. I thank you. (Great applause.)

The audience enthusiastically united in singing two verses of "America."

The visitors retired, the Grand Lodge was called to order and proceeded with its business.

W. S. Cutshall, P. G., from the Committee on Legislation, made the following report, which was laid over until tomorrow.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred the report of the Committee on Finance in reference to a resolution affecting the Home tax, respectfully report that we have considered said report and recommend that Section 1 of Article VIII of the Constitution of the Rebekah Assembly be amended to read as follows:

On motion, the Grand Lodge adjourned until tomorrow morning at 8:30 o'clock.

THURSDAY—MORNING SESSION.

THURSDAY, May 23, 1918, 8:30 a. m.

The Grand Lodge met at 8:30 a. m. pursuant to adjournment, Grand Master W. E. Deupree presiding.

The Grand Secretary reported a quorum present.

The opening ode and one stanza of "America" were sung, and also the following popular verse:

"God save our noble men,
Bring them safe home again,
God save our men.
Keep them victorious,
Patient and chivalrous,
They are so dear to us,
God save our men."

After which the Grand Chaplain offered prayer, as follows:

Our Heavenly Father, we come before Thee this beautiful morning with thankful hearts. We thank Thee for this beautiful day; help us to live in it wisely and well. We thank Thee for our great Order with its great charter of faith; help us to embody all its tenets in our daily lives. We thank Thee for our land; help us to serve it, to love it, to sacrifice for it, to die for it if need be, and may our royal, starry banner never wave over any shameful or cowardly deeds of ours.

Bless our nation and its leaders. Bless our defenders and give victory in thine own good time.

Fire our hearts with a flaming and holy zeal. Keep and guide us in this and every day and save us all at last. We ask in our dear Redeemer's name. Amen.

The motion carried.

Bro. Henry Stahl, of No. 634, was appointed proofreader by the Grand Secretary.

The appointment was approved.

W. M. Nauer, P. G. Rep., offered the following resolution, which was considered and adopted:

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be given by this Grand Lodge to Greenwood Lodge, No. 198, and Meridian Lodge, No. 480, which lodges conferred the initiatory and first degrees at Tomlinson

Hall last night in such an efficient and intelligent manner. Their work was such that our representatives should go back to their home lodges inspired with a zeal to do better degree work.

Frank McConaughy, P. G., from the Committee on Judiciary, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred the decision of Deputy Grand Master Winterrowd in regard to the proposed amendment to the by-laws of Greenfield Lodge, No. 135, beg to submit the following:

The decision of the Deputy Grand Master seems to us to be in conformity with the law of the Order and we recommend the approval of his action in refusing to approve the proposed amendment to said by-laws.

Wm. Marsh, P. G., from the Committee on the State of the Order, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report with reference to "Supervisors and Reports of Supervisors," have carefully considered the same. The appointment of G. P. Bornwasser, Past Grand Master, and John H. Teckenbrock, P. G., by the Grand Master to assist him in working for the good of the Order and assist weaker lodges, find by their reports that they have accomplished much good in keeping the weaker lodges going and alive. We therefore commend their services and recommend that they be continued in the future for the good of the Order in Indiana.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

THURSDAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 23, 1918.

The Grand Lodge convened at 1:00 p. m., pursuant to the recess taken at the forenoon session, with the same officers and a quorum of members present.

H. C. Ray, P. G., from the Committee on the State of the Order, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report introductory thereto, would respectfully report that we feel assured that he has done a noble work considering the cold weather, shortage of fuel, and the war conditions during the past six months of his service, and we commend his zealous efforts under such adverse circumstances and congratulate him on being able to visit so many lodges as he has under such conditions.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report relative to "County and District Meetings," beg leave to report that we fully endorse and concur in his recommendation that the lodges visit each other of the county or district at least once in each month, and confer the degrees, as a means of strengthening and helping the weaker lodges.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relative to

"Gains and Losses of Lodges," beg leave to report that we have duly considered the same and find that the net loss for the term exceeds the net gain by $52, doubtless due to the adverse conditions caused by the war. Brothers, this is a serious loss, and we should exert our best efforts to stem the tide and stop further losses.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that portion of the Grand Secretary's report pertaining to "Table of Comparisons," "Averages, Deductions," etc., beg leave to report that the Grand Secretary is entitled to high praise for these valuable tables as set forth in his report, and we recommend that they be studied by the members of the Order.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relative to the "Roll of Honor," most heartily commend him for giving the same, as it is calculated to stimulate interest in lodges to be enrolled on the "Honor Roll," and we recommend its continuance.

W. I. Hughes, P. G. Rep., offered the following resolution, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Resolved, That the representatives of this Grand Lodge to the Sovereign Grand Lodge at its next session, are hereby requested to take such steps as are necessary to have the Sovereign Grand Lodge adopt a form of official certificate of membership, to be given to the members of this Order who are in the service of our country, such cards to show the brother's standing in the Order, the same to be printed in the French and English languages and given to our brothers by their lodges free of charge, so that they will receive the best care and protection that can be given while in the service of their country.

John G. Kratli, P. G., from the Committee on the State of the Order, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, fully and heartily concur in the Grand Master's report in relation to payment of dues promptly on the last meeting night of each quarter; also the importance of lodges taking more care in the selection of their financial secretaries and elect only such brothers as will take a personal pride in notifying every brother of the time for paying dues. Let all Noble Grands appoint standing committees to solicit all delinquent members to renew their faith in this noble Order and urge all dropped members to reinstate themselves in this great Order of Odd Fellowship.

W. R. Dunham, G. Pat., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report relating to The Talisman, will say that it is with much pride we can point to the great work done by that publication throughout our Grand Jurisdiction in the past. We view with alarm the probable suspension of this great publication. It is now up to this Grand Body at this time to either recede or advance in stabilizing the publication of this great journal. We therefore recommend that this Grand Body, through its Grand Master, appoint a committee of five members to confer at once with the publishers and try to devise some plan by which the Talisman can be kept alive and join with us in putting Odd Fellowship "over the top" in this Grand Jurisdiction. May it long live and send messages of peace and good will to our brothers who are now in the trenches battling for liberty, which is so dearly loved and cherished by all Odd Fellows throughout the world. We recommend that this committee report at its earliest convenience.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report on "Statistics and Membership by Counties" of the subordinate branch of the Order, will say that these reports are of much value as a reference to those who are interested to know the standing of our Order throughout the State by counties. We wish to commend our worthy Secretary in furnishing those reports and recommend the same be continued from time to time so long as our Order exists.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report entitled "Encampment," will say we heartily endorse every word of his regarding the Encampment branch of the Order. He has truly and honestly said that the best working members in the subordinate lodges are those who are members of the Encampment Degree. They are so thoroughly imbued with the true spirit of Odd Fellowship when they have finished the work in the Encampment Degrees that they are ever ready to join in making the world better by having lived in it and advancing the teachings of the Patriarchs of old. May we ever heed the admonition of our worthy Grand Master in urging those who are not Patriarchs to join the nearest Encampment and become workers in the Patriarchal branch of the Order and practice some of the principles laid down by the Patriarchs of long ago. May the true spirit of Odd Fellowship, from the lower to the higher degrees, waft o'er this fair land of ours, so dearly loved by a free and liberty loving people.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report on "Patriarchs Militant," will say that his remarks are well taken, as the military training alone is worth much to us at this time. Had our boys had the military training that those who are members of the Patriarchs Militant have had, they would have been more efficient in entering the service of our country.

C. W. Blackburn, P. G., from the Committee on Legislation, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Legislative Committee, to whom was referred the proposed amendment to Section 6 of the rules and regulations for admission to and government of the I. O. O. F. Home, report as follows:

In view of the change in the articles of incorporation of the Home Association as reported by the Special Home Committee and adopted by this Grand Lodge at the morning session, May 22d, your Legislative Committee is of the opinion that it would be unwise to adopt the proposed change in said Section 6 until after the revised articles of incorporation are put into operation.

We recommend, therefore, that action on the amendment to said Section 6 be deferred till the next session of this Grand Lodge.

Also the following report, which was considered, and on motion the report was laid over and made a special order for the afternoon session of the first day of the November session, 1918:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Legislative Committee, to whom was referred the report of the Special Committee of the November, 1917 session, which report reads as follows:

ASSIGNMENT OF MEMBERS OF DEFUNCT LODGES.

Section 1. Any Odd Fellow over 50 years of age, and who has been in continuous membership for twenty-five years or more, and whose lodge has become defunct and was in good standing at the time of its so becoming defunct, may, upon making application upon such form as may be prescribed for assignment, same to be sent to the Grand Secretary, be assigned by him to the subordinate lodge in this Jurisdiction nearest to his place of residence; or if two or more lodges be equidistant, then to either of such lodges, and upon such assignment shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges and benefits hereinafter provided, so long as he shall continue to pay his quarterly dues and is not suspended or expelled, and there be sufficient funds in the fund hereinafter provided for to pay such benefits and expenses.

Such application for assignment shall be made within six months from the date of the surrender or taking up of the charter of the lodge to which such member belonged.

Sec. 2. Sec. 6. The subordinate lodge shall be reimbursed for all moneys paid such an assigned member for sick benefits, or for funeral expenses paid, from the special fund, upon proper certificate, signed by the Noble Grand and Secretary of the lodge under the seal of the lodge, such reimbursement to be made by warrant duly drawn upon such fund by the Grand Secretary.

Sec. 7. Assigned members shall have no voice or vote in the lodges to which they have been assigned. No amounts for nurse hire shall be paid for or on account of such assigned members from such special fund: Provided, That such member shall be entitled to attentive benefits from the lodge to which he has been assigned, with the exception of the payment of nurse hire.

Sec. 8. The Grand Secretary shall keep a record of the receipts and disbursements of such fund, the names of assigned members and to what lodges assigned and make a report at each session of the Grand Lodge.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred the various questions propounded to the Grand Master and the answers made to such questions by him, such questions being numbered from 1 to 83, inclusive, beg to submit the following report:

We have carefully examined all of said questions and the answers thereto and concur in and approve the answers so made to questions 1 to 3, inclusive; questions 6 to 26, inclusive; questions 29 to 39, inclusive; questions 41 to 71, inclusive, and questions 73 to 83, inclusive.

With reference to questions 4, 5, 27 and 28, we beg to say that in our opinion a strict construction of the law would require the answers thereto to be "No," but that in the light of the great purpose that the law had in view, that of ministering unto and aiding those of our brethren who have been called to the colors and, further, because of the practical construction put upon the law by our Grand Master and by the committee having in charge the distribution of the funds authorized by the law, we are of the opinion that the Grand Master's answers to said questions should stand and that the construction put upon the law by him should be approved by this Grand Lodge.

We also recommend that the answer to question No. 40 be "No," and that the answer to question No. 72 likewise be "No." We furthermore recommend that the answer to question No. 50 be amended by adding after word "Yes" the following: "Provided, December 31st is the last meeting night of the quarter;" otherwise "No."

Jacob Goldman, P. G., from the Committee on Memorial, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Memorial Committee, submit the following:

Brother and Rev. Marion Crosley, D. D., Past Grand Chaplain of our Grand Lodge, died November 27th on a train between Louisville, Ky., and Indianapolis. Brother Crosley was born December 19, 1836, in Butler County, Ohio. He completed his education at the college at Lebanon, Ohio. He was a prominent Universalist minister and was pastor of the Universalist Church in Indianapolis from 1899 to 1907. He retired from the ministry several years ago. He was greatly interested in fraternal organizations. His sojourn at Indianapolis for many years impressed us with his many sterling qualities of mind and heart. His service to our Order as Grand Chaplain and in other capacities will long be remembered for its lasting benefit, for in all his work he was guided by strict integrity of purpose, kindness, gentleness and Christian charity. We deeply mourn his passing and acknowledge our great loss in his death.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted by the members of the Grand Lodge standing, during which prayer was offered by A. A. Spears, P. G. M.:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Memorial Committee, beg leave to submit the following:

On January 24th, 1918, Sister Jennie Leedy, beloved wife of our worthy Grand Secretary, passed to the Grand Lodge above. Sister Leedy will certainly be missed by the community and the Rebekahs. Her splendid work for the good and welfare of humanity, her interest in fraternalism, and her sunny disposition made her dear to everybody. To the Odd Fellows of Indiana, it is enough to know that she was the life helpmate of our distinguished and greatest Odd Fellow in the United States, Bro. William H. Leedy. We assure Brother Leedy that every Odd Fellow and Rebekah in our Grand Jurisdiction extends to him and his beloved children their heartfelt sympathy and bespeak for them the solace which the Heavenly Father gives to all His children in the hour of sorrow. We recommend that the Grand Lodge adopt this resolution by standing, and that the Grand Chaplain and the members of the Grand Lodge offer a prayer for the protection and safe guidance of our dear Brother Leedy and his family.

John B. Cockrum, P. G. Sire, from the Committee on the State of the Order, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, respectfully report that it has had referred to it a letter received from Grand Secretary Wm. Brooks of the Jurisdiction of Ontario, inviting the Grand Secretary, W. H. Leedy, and the Grand Master, W. E. Deupree, to attend the annual session of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, to be held in the city of Hamilton, Ont., June 20 and 21, 1918.

We have given consideration to the letter and appreciate the friendly position taken by the brother in the kindly invitation extended. It is the opinion of your committee that the Grand Master and the Grand Secretary should attend this meeting of the Grand Lodge of Ontario at the time stated, and that it will be beneficial and helpful to our Grand Jurisdiction. The expenses attending this meeting should not be borne by the officers in question, but is an expense that should be borne by the Grand Lodge. Be it therefore

Resolved, That the Grand Secretary be directed to inform the Grand Lodge of Ontario that the Indiana Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows has directed that the Grand Master and Grand Secretary of this Jurisdiction attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, at Hamilton, Ont., June 20 and 21, and that the expenses of such visit incurred by the two officers, respectively, be borne by the Grand Lodge of Indiana.

A. A. Spears, P. G. M., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report entitled "Grand Trustee," submit the following report:

We heartily approve the appointment of P. G. Philip Zoercher by the Grand Master to fill the vacancy of Grand Trustee caused by the death of our dear brother and faithful friend, Brother M. A. Chipman, and recommend that the appointment be approved.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that portion of the Grand Master's report entitled "Disputes," would recommend that the appointment by the Grand Master of P. G. M. Arbuckle to settle the dispute between Fargo Lodge, No. 886, and English Lodge, No. 596, be and is hereby approved.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report entitled "War Relief," submit the following report:

We believe that the Odd Fellows of Indiana have taken advanced steps as stated by the Grand Master in his report. And we are of the opinion that when the time comes for us to do more, we will meet the test face to face and continue to go forward. We are our brothers' keeper, and while they are in the service we will stand by them to the last and give of our earthly substance willingly that they may be cared for and protected. We most heartily approve the action of the Grand Master in complying with the request of the League to Enforce Peace by appointment of Past Grand Sire John B. Cockrum and our Grand Secretary Leedy to represent the Odd Fellows of Indiana at the conference of the league in Philadelphia.

We endorse every word the Grand Master has said, and recommend their approval.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relative to lodges failing to comply with the payment of the war assessment, would report as follows:

Resolved, That the Grand Secretary is hereby instructed to again write the following lodges: Border Lodge, No. 224; Goldsmith Lodge, No. 324; Comet Lodge, No. 615; Rolling Prairie Lodge, No. 679, and Saline City Lodge, No. 835, and request them to forward their war fund amount. Upon their failure to remit or give good and sufficient reasons for not paying, the Grand Master is hereby directed to cause the arrest of the charter of the lodges failing to comply with such payment.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report entitled "War Relief Fund," beg to report that we endorse the action of the Finance Board in ordering the expenses of the board paid from the treasury of the Grand Lodge. We believe that the "War Fund" should be used for the purpose of giving relief to our soldier boys. We also desire to congratulate the Finance Board in deciding that all soldier members, whether delinquent or not, are entitled to participate in the War Relief Fund. We are also of the opinion that they acted wisely in deciding that Y. M. C. A. men in war service, unless regularly enlisted or conscripted, are not entitled to participate in the War Relief Fund.

We would urge the absolute necessity of secretaries sending the names of all their members in the service of our country to the Grand Secretary at once. And we would also urge you representatives to return to your various lodges and make it your business to see that this very important matter is looked after.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report entitled "Conclusion," submit the following:

The reference of our Grand Secretary to the severe cold weather we experienced during the past winter had a tendency to cause the cold shivers to creep up our backs.

Each and every one of us can recall without any effort the very uncomfortable and unpleasant days and nights many of us went through.

However cold and unpleasant as were these days and nights, the Grand Secretary reports a gain for the year, which to us is indeed encouraging. His statement that the responsibility is greater upon us who remain at home is timely, and each and every one of us should remember that the service required and demanded of us during the present world-wide war is greater than ever before in the history of our Order. Brothers, let us be true, loyal and faithful to our country and our boys in the service by giving our time, our money, and our lives if need be, that our nation and homes may be preserved.

G. P. Bornwasser, P. G. Rep., offered the following resolution, which was considered and adopted:

Resolved, That the Grand Lodge reimburse Grand Master Deupree to the amount of $10.00 for decorations in Tomlinson Hall for the nights used for degree work.
